Coasting A Private Voyage:

Coasting Jonathan Raban, 2011-09-07 From the national bestselling National Book Critics Circle Award winning author of Bad Land comes a lively intensely personal recounting of a voyage into a gifted writer's country and self The New York Times Book Review Put Jonathan Raban on a boat and the results will be fascinating and never more so than when he's sailing around the serpentine 2 000 mile coast of his native England In this acutely perceived and beautifully written book the bestselling author of Bad Land turns that voyage which coincided with the Falklands war of 1982 into an occasion for meditations on his country his childhood and the elusive notion of home Whether he's chatting with bored tax exiles on the Isle of Man wrestling down a mainsail during a titanic gale or crashing a Scottish house party where the kilted guests turn out to be Americans Raban is alert to the slightest nuance of meaning One can read Coasting for his precise naturalistic descriptions or his mordant comments on the new England where the principal industry seems to be the marketing of Englishness But one always reads it with pleasure

Coasting Jonathan Raban, 1988 In 1982 while British troops were sailing to war in the Falklands Jonathan Raban began a long journey around the British Isles His three thousand mile voyage revealed many lively encounters with friends and strangers but it is his description of the sea that makes this work a masterpiece of Alaska Travel Writing since 1959 Benjamin Ferguson,2025-08-28 This book digs into environmental themes in Alaska travel writing since U S statehood in 1959 drawing on the works of six authors including Barry Lopez Jonathan Raban Tom Lowenstein and others Each work though disparate in style advocates for the empowerment of the Alaska Native people by connecting not only with diverse perspectives but with the lived realities in the geographical spaces that have formed them. In analyzing how these authors have succeeded in depicting the realities of alterities and where they have perhaps fallen short by more recent standards we may begin to carve out a system of ethics. This is important as fresh waves of travel writers search for their own place in the environmental conversations surrounding the ever evolving 21st century Arctic and its place on the front lines of a changing climate.

Seeking St. Louis Lee Ann Sandweiss, 2000. Complementing the new permanent exhibition at the Missouri Historical Society this anthology gathers over three centuries of writings on St. Louis by 100 individuals who have been inspired to describe the physical and cultural essence of this region. The volume contains excerpted selections from all genres: travel diaries, poetry, fiction, journalism, drama, and rare out of print and previously unpublished archival material including poems by Angus Umphrville from the first volume of verse published west of the Mississippi and newspaper articles by Theodore Dreiser when he was a beat reporter for the St. Louis Globe Democrat. Other compelling excerpts were authored by such notables as Auguste Chouteau, Charles Dickens, William Wells Brown, William T. Sherman, Sara Teasdale, T. S. Eliot, Tennessee Williams, Fanny Hurst, William S. Burroughs, Miles Davis, N. Z. Shange, John Lutz, Carl Phillips, and Quincy Troupe. A biographical introduction precedes each entry to place the author and the excerpt in the proper historical context. The content of Seeking St. Louis was enriched by the involvement of several of the St. Louis area's foremost literary experts: Robert Boyd, Jan Garden, Castro, Gerald Early, Wayne Fields, and Karen Goering, who served as contributing editors.

Sailing Alone Richard J. King, 2024-05-21. 2024 National Outdoor Book Award Silver Medal Winner. A masterfully curated collection. You don't have to be a sailor to be blown away by this fascinating, bighearted book. Nathaniel Philbrick, author of In the Heart of the Sea, Travels with George, and Second Wind, a story as vast and exhilarating as the open ocean itself. SAILING ALONE chronicles the daring, disastrous, and often absurd history of those who chose to sail across the ocean in very small boats alone. Sailing by yourself out of sight of land can be invigorating and terrifying, compelling and tedious, and sometimes all of the above in one morning. But it is also a wide expanse of time in which to think. Sailing Alone tells the story of some of the remarkable people who over the last four centuries have spent weeks and months moving slowly over the world's largest laboratory, a capricious and startling place in which to observe oneself, the weather, the stars, and countless sea creatures from the tiniest to the most massive and threatening. Richard J. King profiles characters famous, diverse, international, and obscure from Joshua Slocum of 1898 to modern teenagers daring to take the challenge. They see strange hallucinations, lie to us and themselves on their travel logs, encounter sharks, befriend birds, and experience ESP, all part of the unnerving reality of extended isolation. And some disappear altogether. Sailing Alone also recounts the author's own nearly catastrophic solo crossing of the Atlantic and the mystery of his inexplicable survival one sunny afternoon. An enormously engaging new book for skippers and armchair voyagers alike.
