Cogic Aspiring Missionary Training Guide:

Missionary Training Guide Rafielle Usher, Rev Rafielle E Usher M a, 2013-03-13 Remember being called to serve in God's ministry is only the beginning The next step is to become equipped and trained on how to do the job properly without causing harm to yourself or to those whom you are called to serve In Training Alfred Thomas Houghton, 1946

Missionary Candidate Training Paul Sungro Lee, 2008-11-15 Today the world mission has unprecedentedly become a task of every national churches and believers on earth Missionaries are being sent out from every nations to every nations Strategists have previously noticed that Africa along with East Asia would emerge as the key fulcrum for world missions in the 21st Century 2010 Lausanne Congress held in South Africa proved that to be true Along this path Evangelical Alliance for Preacher Training Commission EAPTC opened their missions training schools in Kenya and South Korea using this book as their training text It was through the efforts of those missionary trainees that their work expanded into over 200 new church plants in 11 countries today This book was put together mainly for Two Thirds World missionary candidates who often find themselves limited with sound missions training opportunities around while the lessons in this manual apply to all who are mission interested Going as a missionary or sending a missionary without proper training is quite reckless The principles of cross cultural mission presented in 11 chapters of this book are field tested nuggets that can certainly equip anyone aspiring for missionary work The training has been scientifically validated effective through research and used in Africa Asia Americas and Oceania This manual is also available in French Spanish Portuguese and Amharic Missionary Training Guide Ian E. Benson, 1996 Missionary Training Program Binder, Language Missionary Training Center (Provo, Utah), Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 1983 Training Missionaries Evelyn Hibbert, Richard Hibbert, 2016-09-08 Missionaries must know God be able to relate well to other people understand and engage with another culture and be able to use the Bible in a way that informs all aspects of their lives and ministries Missionary training must address each of these areas if it is to help Christians to be effective in taking the gospel to the ends of the earth Effective training has been shown to prevent people from prematurely leaving the field It also reduces the danger of cross cultural workers uncritically exporting culturally bound forms of Christianity This book details four key areas that every missionary training program whatever its context must focus on developing It shows how these can be holistically addressed in a learning community where trainers and trainees engage in cross cultural ministry together Missionary Handbook Supplement Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 1986 Encountering Missionary Life and Work (Encountering Mission) Tom Steffen, Lois McKinney Douglas, 2008-06-01 This new volume in the award winning Encountering Mission series is for current and future missionaries It provides practical guidance regarding getting ready for the mission field and the realities of life on the field The authors are well qualified to write such a manual each having served as a missionary for more than twenty years and each having taught missions in seminary The authors begin by examining the contemporary context for missions including the recognition that the world's mission fields are in constant and often rapid change. They then discuss aspects of preparing oneself for the mission field beginning with home front preparations and moving to on the field preparations. The final section deals with practical issues and challenges of missionary life. Missionary Training Guide, 1996 Training
