The book has been updated and revised throughout with new material in both the historical overview and the country case studies. It offers a broad survey of economic systems then looks separately at market capitalism, Marxism and socialism and new traditional economies with an emphasis on the role of religions. Islam in particular in economic systems. It presents case studies of advanced capitalist nations including the United States, Japan, Sweden, and Germany, alternative paths in the transition from socialist to market economies taken by such countries as Russia, the former Soviet republics, Poland, China, and the two Koreas, and developing countries including India, Iran, South Africa, Mexico, and Brazil. The new chapters on Brazil and South Africa complete the book's coverage of all five BRICS nations; the chapter on South Africa extends the book's comparative treatment to another continent. The chapter on Brazil with its account of the role of the Amazon rain forest as a great carbon sink expands the coverage of global environmental and sustainability issues.
