Description Of Egypt Description Of Egypt:

Description of Egypt Edward William Lane, 2000 The launching of this hitherto unpublished book by the great nineteenth century British traveler Edward William Lane 1801-76 a name known to almost everyone in all the many fields of Middle East studies is a major publishing event Lane was the author of a number of highly influential works An Account of the Manners and Customs of the Modern Egyptians 1836 his translation of The Thousand and One Nights 1839-41 Selections from the Kur'an 1843 and the Arabic English Lexicon 1863-93 Yet one of his greatest works was never published after years of labor and despite an enthusiastic reception by the publishing firm of John Murray in 1831 publication of his first book Description of Egypt was delayed and eventually dropped mainly for financial reasons The manuscript was sold to the British Library by Lane's widow in 1891 and has only now been salvaged for publication by Dr Jason Thompson nearly 170 years after its completion This enormously important book which takes the form of a journey through Egypt from north to south with descriptions of all the ancient monuments and contemporary life that Lane explored along the way will be of immense interest to both ancient and modern historians of Egypt and will become an essential companion to his Manners and Customs Jason Thompson's exact and dedicated edition deserves much praise Astene Newsletter June 2002 Thompson a historian at AUC has done signal service in taking a manuscript dating from 1831 and preparing it for publication so many years later AUC Press deserves praise for making so major a work available and at so reasonable a price Daniel Pipes Middle East Quarterly June 2001 In all the appearance of this major work of scholarship at this late date is a major boon to the study of Egypt's history between the pharaohs and 18280 Daniel Pipes Middle East Quarterly June 2001 The Description of Egypt from Napoleon to Champollion Tamar Sarfatti, 2022-12-01 This book is the first study in English of the multi-volume set of texts and engravings of the Description of Egypt a work produced following the three year long Egyptian campaign led by Napoleon Bonaparte in 1798 The book challenges the conventional and rather reductive interpretation of the Description that followed Edward Said's Orientalism as a summation of an orientalist colonial project It re-centres the Description in the much more complex and dynamic political and intellectual world of France of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth century and its colonial aspirations It follows closely the notes, texts and illustrations of the contributors to the work the majority of whom were graduates of the first years of the Polytechnic school in Paris and the well documented editing process that continued for almost thirty years in which France moved from Revolution to Empire and Restoration It shows the ways in which scholarly traditions and newly acquired skills interplay with Enlightenment texts, contemporary politics and received ideas about antiquity and how these were reinterpreted and modified in texts and illustrations through the encounter with the physical and social worlds of Ottoman Egypt Using the rich repository of the Description of Egypt the book demonstrates the contribution of antiquarian methods of research to the emerging disciplines of the social sciences A Handbook for Travellers in Egypt; Including Descriptions of the Course of the Nile to the Second Cataract, Alecandria, Cairo, the Pyramids, and Thebes, the Overland Transit to India, the Peninsula of Mount Sinai, the Oases Etc. Condensed From' Modern Egypt and Thebes' John Gardner Wilkinson, 1858 An Account of the Manners and Customs of the Modern Egyptians Edward William Lane, 2012 First published in 1836 this classic book of an English observer's impressions of a nineteenth century Egypt has never gone out of print continuously providing material and inspiration for generations of scholars writers and travelers who have praised its comprehensiveness detail and perception A Handbook for Travellers in Lower and upper Egypt; including Descriptions of the Course of the Nile through Egypt and Nubia, Alexandria, Cairo, the Pyramids, Thebes, the Suez Canal, the Peninsula of Mount Sinai, the Oases, the Fayoom, etc , 1888 Egypt , 1839 Egypt on the Pentateuch's Ideological Map Franz V. Greifenhagen, 2003-04-01 This book explores the references to Egypt in the Pentateuch twice as dense as in the rest of the Hebrew Bible in the context of the production of the text's final form during the Persian period Here as Greifenhagen shows Egypt functions ideologically as the primary other over against which Israel's identity is constructed while its role in Israel's formation appears as subsidiary and as a superseded stage in a master narrative which locates Israel's ethnic roots in Mesopotamia But the presentation of this powerful neighbour is equivocal a dominant anti Egyptian stance coexists with alternative though subordinate pro Egyptian views suggesting that the Pentateuchal narrative was produced within a context of ideological conflict over attitudes towards a land that provided a home for Jewish fugitives and emigrants Global Forum on Transparency and Exchange of Information for Tax Purposes: Egypt 2024 (Second Round) Peer Review Report on the Exchange of Information on Request OECD, 2024-03-28 This peer review report analyses the practical implementation of the standard of transparency and exchange of information on request in Egypt as part of the second round of reviews conducted by the Global Forum on Transparency and Exchange of Information for Tax Purposes since 2016 Egypt Karl Baedeker (Firm), 1898 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2012
