Designing And Integrating A Disaster Readying Nurses For The Worst:

Designing and Integrating a Disaster Preparedness Curriculum Thola A. Bennecoff Wolanski, 2015 Preparing Nurses for Disaster Management - E-Book Joanne Langan, 2022-02-15 Learn how to plan for and respond to disasters Preparing Nurses for Disaster Management A Global Perspective helps you build the skills you need to prepare for respond to and recover from emergency situations efficiently and effectively It includes the personal stories of nurses who have experienced disasters describing the specific incident the response what worked or didn't work and the lessons learned Case studies show how to apply international response guidelines in providing care for those in need Written by Joanne Langan an internationally known expert in disaster preparedness this reference will help you feel more confident in handling the aftermath of both natural and man made disasters Coverage of disaster management includes the stages of disaster response nursing roles and personal case studies of actual disasters and public health emergencies around the world e.g. natural disasters global earthquakes radiation disasters chemical disasters biologic or infectious disease outbreaks and man made disasters Actual Disasters unit provides a description of each event preparedness response recovery personal preparedness equipment legal and ethical issues special considerations and lessons learned Tabletop exercises and drills allow organizations and institutions to assess their readiness determine community vulnerabilities and prepare appropriate responses to disaster events such as an active shooter cyberattacks and the grid power going down Case studies help you learn to apply concepts to practice User friendly content includes definitions of key terms and the role expectations for different nurse specialties and levels Discussions of International Council of Nurses Core Competencies in Disaster Nursing use this benchmark as an outline for effective nursing practice before during and after disasters Reviews of psychiatric mental health issues discuss interventions to improve mental health following disasters Expert contributors share perspectives and experience from a number of different countries Designing and Integrating a Disaster Preparedness Curriculum Sharon Stanley, Thola A. Bennecoff Wolanski, 2015 Designing and Integrating a Disaster Preparedness Curriculum Readyng Nurses for the Worst presents a curriculum blueprint for nurse educators that provides readers with best practices for implementation while avoiding pitfalls and mistakes Disaster preparation experts Sharon Stanley and Thola Wolanski help ensure that nursing students are prepared to respond to disasters whether in their own neighborhoods or around the world by giving nurse educators strategies and solutions for incorporating disaster preparedness into their curricula Publisher Implications of Disaster Preparedness for Nursing, An Issue of Nursing Clinics of North America Deborah J. Persell, 2016-11-18 According to the Center for Research and Epidemiology of Disasters the frequency and severity of disasters has increased over 300% in the last decade Healthcare systems and individual healthcare practitioners including nurses are now fulfilling multiple roles in disaster preparedness in the whole of community planning preparedness risk identification mitigation response and recovery Nurses are considered first responders for biological events or when the disaster occurs where they are working Nurses act as first receivers when accepting patients victims for care whose injuries result from non biological events occurring outside the nurse s workplace The vast majority of practicing nurses received no disaster preparedness education in their basic nursing education program Nurses graduating in the 21st century are exposed to some of the concepts of disaster nursing but have little experience unless there is a disaster or emergency where they work or go to school Readers will be updated on this topic because articles in this edition demonstrate a vast array of implications for nurses in disaster preparedness around the world chemical biological radiological nuclear explosives CBRNE natural disasters new models of training and educating nurses for disasters military nurse response mental health issues as well as non government organizations Nursing as Ministry Kristen L. Mauk,Mary Hobus,2019-10-01 Designed to be a student friendly textbook for faith based schools this first edition text focuses on nursing as ministry not just spiritual care
