Watson, LaVisa Cam Wilson, 1999 This comprehensive fourth edition text includes the skills necessary to provide high quality care for infants and toddlers in any child care setting The text emphasizes individual care and includes helpful information on incorporating individualized techniques and activities for each child in care Important information on learning theorists cultural diversity and special needs helps students understand the many issues affecting child care The emphasis on growth and development provides students with valuable information that enables them to provide the best possible care The Impact of New Fertility Policies on Early Education and Development in China Xiumin Hong, Yong Jiang, Li Luo, Philip Hui Li, 2023-12-04 This book is among the first to comprehensively examine the far reaching impact of China's new fertility policies on early education and development Since the beginning of the 21st century China has entered a period of declining fertility rate and aging population which poses a serious threat to its sustainable development To address this crisis China has radically revised its fertility policy through the state's guidance for regulating couples reproductive choices abandoning its iconic one child policy and adopting the selective two child 2013 universal two child 2016 and then the three child 2021 policy Drawing on empirical evidence obtained through various research methods this book offers multidisciplinary perspectives on the far reaching impact of these policies Part I summarizes the lessons learned from new fertility policies and identifies important directions for future research Focusing on two major microsystems part II presents research assessing families fertility desire for an additional child and projecting the demand for preschool education Part III attends to family dynamics and their relation to early learning and development for both only and non only children Part IV addresses the importance of expanding access to affordable and high quality early childhood education and care for children from birth through age 6 The Impact of New Fertility Policies on Early Education and Development in China contributes to policy development and practical improvement and serves as a catalyst to stimulate future studies on the topic It will be a valuable resource for researchers policymakers and practitioners of early childhood education and care as well as for families of young children The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Early Education and Development

Infants & Toddlers LaVisa Cam Wilson,Linda Douville-Watson,Michael A. Watson,1995 An How To guide for those involved in the design administration and or implementation of child care programs including expanded sections on child development concepts and principals and the inclusion of developmental profiles and prescriptions Resources in Education ,1995 Transforming Early Head Start Home Visiting Bridget A. Walsh,Jennifer A. Mortensen,2019-10-29 Research on home visiting shows that Early Head Start EHS home based programs benefit from additional training and resources that streamline philosophy and content In this essential guide Walsh and Mortensen propose that alignment with Family Life Education s FLE strengths based methodology results in greater consistency through a model of prevention education and collaboration with families This text is the first to outline linkages between FLE and EHS home visiting It explores a qualitative study of FLE integrated in a current EHS home based program and application of FLE methodology to home visiting topics This approach will influence professional practice and provide a foundation for developing evidence based home visiting practices Online content accompanies the text with videos demonstrating the FLE approach in action and discussion questions to encourage engagement with and understanding of the core material Transforming Early Head Start Home Visiting A Family Life Education Approach is essential reading for upper level undergraduate and masters students in family studies and early childhood education as well as practitioners working with children and families
