Desert The Mojave And Death Valley:

Desert Janice Emily Bowers, 2003-03-01 Pulitzer Prize winning landscape photographer Jack Dykinga turns his lens to the American Southwest's spectacular scenic wonders Death Valley and the vast Mojave Desert that surrounds it Botanist Janice Emily Bowers provides a personal text complementing stunning views of this remarkably alive landscape In California's Mojave Desert Betty Debnam, 2000 Secret Places in the Mojave Desert Death Jim, 2012-11-19 A lonely cabin nestled inside of a deserted canyon a wall of ancient rock art left undisturbed throughout the ages a pile of forgotten relics left to rust and shimmer in the sun these are the secret places of the Mojave Desert Death Valley Jim has taken his interest in these secret places to a hobby to a passion to his life Jim initially began visiting these places casually while on vacation to visit his family A love affair with the desert was forged soon thereafter compelling him to move to this wonderland filled with rich history and mystery Death Valley Jim is now a resident and historian of the Mojave and his dream is to be able to spark the same kind of passion and interest in the desert for others Whether you're new to the Mojave Desert or a longtime resident this book will reveal the story about the places and people that made these mysteries possible Perhaps you will find your favorite secret place or discover some new places you've never heard of A few of the places contained within these pages are the apocalyptic like aftermath of the Boron Air Force Station turned Federal Prison Ballarat the ghost that refuses to die the well preserved pictographs of Indian Wells Canyon the violent and bloody mountain town of Cerro Gordo and many many more Historians archeological enthusiasts amateur prospectors and mining enthusiasts tourists and local residents alike are invited to join Death Valley Jim in following him in the footsteps of those who blazed the trails of one of the most unique places in the world known as the Mojave Desert The secret places are there to discover now just to find them for yourself

Secret Places in the Mojave Desert Vol. IV Death Jim, 2013-10-14 Sometimes secret places are in some of the most well known places in our public lands These secret places are kept a secret because there are groups or organizations that do not feel you the reader of this very book can be trusted with these secrets In his beginnings Death Valley Jim was a lot like those who read his books He combed through piles of research many of which lead to dead ends and poorly documented sites He also encountered outright refusal from rangers and other protectors when asked about these secret places This frustration and secrecy is what has motivated him to continue the Secret Places in the Mojave Desert series to help others like him with a genuine love and interest in the desert and the many treasures that lie within it find them and enjoy them Our National Parks Preserves Monuments and Forests were created with the intent of preserving the special natural wonders they behold They were created for all of us to enjoy and explore But how can these places be truly enjoyed if some of their greatest wonders are being kept a secret from the public Every American pays taxes and a portion of those taxes is used to preserve our national lands And every American should be allowed to enjoy every square foot of them This book focuses on the secret places within Joshua Tree National Park The Mojave National Preserve and surrounding areas You will not be able to find many of these locations in any other publication because they have been so fiercely protected by the powers that be It is expected this book will be met with much criticism and resistance from many but it is Jim s hope that just as the lovers of the desert and its history always have they will continue to respect these natural and anthropological wonders Take only pictures and memories leave only footprints Exploring Death Valley Death Jim,2014-11-01 Sometimes secret places are in some of the most well known places in our public lands These secret places are kept a secret because there are groups or organizations that do not feel you the reader of this very book can be trusted with these secrets In his beginnings Death Valley Jim was a lot like those who read his books He combed through piles of research many of which lead to dead ends and poorly documented sites He also encountered outright refusal from rangers and other protectors when asked about these secret places This frustration and secrecy is what has motivated him to continue the Secret Places in the Mojave Desert series to help others like him with a genuine love and interest in the desert and the many treasures that lie within it find them and enjoy them Our National Parks Preserves Monuments and Forests were created with the intent of preserving the special natural wonders they behold They were created for all of us to enjoy and explore But how can these places be truly enjoyed if some of their greatest wonders are being kept a secret from the public Every American pays taxes and a portion of those taxes is used to preserve our national lands And every American should be allowed to enjoy every square foot of them This book focuses on the secret places within Death Valley National Park and surrounding areas You will not be able to find many of these locations in any other publication because they have been so fiercely protected by the powers that be It is expected this book will be met with much criticism and resistance from many but it is Jim s hope that just as the lovers of the desert and its history always have they will continue to respect these natural and anthropological wonders Take only pictures and memories leave only footprints Hiking the Mojave Desert Michel Dignonnet,2021-10-12 This guidebook to the Mojave National Preserve presents nearly 100 hiking options as well information on the area s natural and cultural histories

Exploring Death Valley II Death Jim,2015-07-16 Sometimes secret places are in some of the most well known places in our public lands These secret places are kept a secret because there are groups or organizations that do not feel you the reader of this very book can be trusted with these secrets In his beginnings Death Valley Jim was a lot like those who read his books He combed through piles of research many of which lead to dead ends and poorly documented sites He also encountered outright refusal from rangers and other protectors when asked about these secret places This frustration and secrecy is what has motivated him to continue the Secret Places in the Mojave Desert series to help others like him with a genuine love and interest in the desert and the many treasures that lie within it find them and enjoy them Our National Parks Preserves Monuments and Forests were created with the intent of preserving the special natural wonders they behold They were created for all of us to enjoy and explore But how can these places be truly enjoyed if some of their greatest wonders are being kept a secret from the public Every American pays taxes and a portion of those taxes is used to preserve our national lands And every American should be allowed to enjoy every square foot of them Exploring Death Valley II picks up where volume I left off focusing on the secret places in northern and eastern Death Valley National Park and surrounding areas You will not be able to find many of these locations in any other publication because they have been so fiercely protected by the powers that be It is expected this book will be met with much criticism and resistance from many but it is Jim s hope that just as the lovers of the desert and its history always have they will continue to respect these natural and anthropological wonders Take only pictures and memories leave only footprints
