Miracle on the Salt River Meredith Haley Whiteley, 2014-10-28 Following enactment of the Reclamation Act the first federally constructed dam broke ground in Arizona s Salt River Valley in 1905 With the inauguration of Roosevelt Dam the distant dream of an abundant life in the desert became a reality The dam and farmer operated water distribution system tamed the vicious drought created arable land and became an irrigation model for the West With the water came farmers and families all eager for the chance to build new lives and communities Many were just like the Haley family farmers from Kentucky and Missouri who settled in the area and whose descendants still call the valley home Follow their journey and discover a snapshot of the life and community that grew from the ditches of the valley Author Meredith Haley Whiteley explores this story from the ordinary person s perspective weaving valley history through drought loss plenty and joy

Desert Reckoning Deanne Stillman, 2012-07-03 North of Los Angeles the studios the beaches Rodeo Drive lies a sparsely populated region that comprises fully one half of Los Angeles County Sprawling across 2200 miles this shadow side of Los Angeles is in the high Mojave Desert Known as the Antelope Valley it s a terrain of savage dignity a vast amphitheatre of startling wonders that put on a show as the megalopolis burrows northward into the region s last frontier Ranchers cowboys dreamers dropouts bikers hikers and felons have settled here those who have chosen solitude over the trappings of contemporary life or simply have nowhere else to go But in recent years their lives have been encroached upon by the creeping spread of subdivisions funded by the once easy money of subprime America McMansions many empty now gradually replaced Joshua trees the desert America s escape hatch began to vanish as it became home to a latter day exodus of pilgrims It is against the backdrop of these two competing visions of land and space that Donald Kueck a desert hermit who loved animals and hated civilization took his last stand gunning down beloved deputy sheriff Steven Sorensen when he approached his trailer at high noon on a scorching summer day As the sound of rifle fire echoed across the Mojave Kueck took off into the desert he knew so well kicking off the biggest manhunt in modern California history until he was finally killed in a Wagnerian firestorm under a full moon as nuns at a nearby convent watched and prayed This manhunt was the subject of a widely praised article by Deanne Stillman first published in Rolling Stone a finalist for a PEN Center USA journalism award and included in the anthology Best American Crime Writing 2006 In Desert Reckoning she continues her desert beat and uses Kueck s story as a point of departure to further explore our relationship to place and the wars that are playing out on our homeland In addition Stillman also delves into the hidden history of Los Angeles County and traces the paths of two men on a collision course that could only end in the modern Wild West Why did a brilliant self taught rocket scientist who just wanted to be left alone go off the rails when a cop showed up What role did the California prison system play in this drama What happens to people when the American dream is stripped away And what is it like for the men who are sworn to protect and serve
