Desert Quartet An Erotic Landscape:

Desert Quartet Terry Tempest Williams, 1995 Beautifully illuminated with drawings and paintings by noted artist Mary Frank Williams one of the West's most intense and lyrical writers invokes the lure and drama of the landscape This is an incandescent meditation in word and image on the physical vastness and beauty of the desert and the spiritual place one woman finds for herself there

"Landscapes of Seduction Boyd Petersen, 2002 Like the Song of Songs Terry Tempest Williams's Desert Quartet submerges its reader in a highly erotic landscape And both use that landscape a garden in the Song and a desert in Desert Quartet to create eros in the text Yet while the Song of Songs uses metaphor to transform the body of the beloved into a garden of delights Desert Quartet uses personification to transform the desert landscape into a passionate lover In the Song of Songs the body becomes the landscape where seduction takes place In Desert Quartet the landscape becomes the body which seduces Both works also invite allegorical readings however the one represents pre modern allegory and the other post modern allegory Finally both texts mirror the landscape they describe The reader must wander through the texts in the same way the texts wander through the settings natural terrain Neither has a coherent linear plot nor argues a monolithic point Perhaps this meandering discourse is as some feminist critics would argue indicative of women's ways of seeing and speaking ways that often make men uncomfortable

New Essays in Ecofeminist Literary Criticism Glynis Carr, 2000 The present volume gathers new essays in ecofeminist literary criticism and theory that extend this critical trajectory for ecocriticism in the context of social eco feminist theory and practice

Adams, Lori Gruen, 2021-12-16 This new edition of Ecofeminism Feminist Intersections with Other Animals and the Earth begins with an historical grounding overview that situates ecofeminist theory and activism within the larger field of ecocriticism and provides a timeline for important publications and events Throughout the book authors engage with intersections of gender sexuality gender expression race disability and species to address the various ways that sexism heteronormativity racism colonialism and ableism are informed by and support animal oppression This collection is broken down into three separate sections Affect includes contributions from leading theorists and activists on how our emotions and embodiment can and must inform our relationships with the more than human world Context explores the complexities of

Schneider, 2009-08-20 Awakening to Awe is a self help meditation on an alternative and growing spiritual movement This is a movement comprised of people who refuse the quick fix model for healing whether that model entails popping pills indulging in material comforts or adhering to doctrinal dogmas By contrast the movement about which Schneider writes is composed of people who have developed the capacity to experience the humility and wonder or in short awe of life deeply lived In particular this book highlights the stories of people who through the cultivation of awe have transformed their lives For example readers will discover how awe transformed the life of an ex gang member into a beloved and productive gang mediator an ex drug addict into a communally conscious healer and a sufferer of stage three cancer into a contemplative and spiritual seeker The book will also inform readers about the challenges and joys of awe based child raising education humor political activism and aging Drawing on the philosophy of Schneider s earlier work the acclaimed Rediscovery of Awe Awakening to Awe tells the down to earth stories of a quiet yet emerging revolution in the transformation of lives The Great Conversation Belden C. Lane,2019-05-01 We are surrounded by a world that talks but we don t listen We are part of a community engaged in a vast conversation but we deny our role in it In the face of climate change species loss and vast environmental destruction the ability to stand in the flow of the great conversation of all creatures and the earth can feel utterly lost to the human race But Belden C Lane suggests that it can and must be recovered not only for the sake of endangered species and the well being of at risk communities but for the survival of the world itself The Great Conversation is Lane s multi faceted treatise on a spiritually centered environmentalism At the core is a belief in the power of the natural world to act as teacher In a series of personal anecdotes Lane pairs his own experiences in the wild with the writings of saints and sages from a wide range of religious traditions A night in a Missourian cave brings to mind the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius of Loyola the canyons of southern Utah elicit a response from the Chinese philosopher Laozi 500 000 migrating sandhill cranes rest in Nebraska and evoke the Sufi poet Farid ud Din Attar With each chapter the humility of spiritual masters through the ages melds with the author s encounters with natural teachers to offer guidance for entering once more into a conversation with the world
