The Echo Chamber Luke Williams, 2011-08-04 An evocative and exquisitely written debut novel about family empire and money Impressive in its scope and ambition this first novel is at once a family saga a book that reimagines the myth of the empire and a history of objects The Echo Chamber is narrated by fifty four year old Evie Steppman who grew up in Nigeria in the 1950s during the last decade of British rule As a child Evie exhibited extraordinarily acute powers of hearing now alone in an attic in Scotland that is filled with objects from her past and with her powers of hearing starting to fade she sets out to record her history before it all disintegrates into a meaningless din Tales of the twelfth century mapmaker in Palermo stories whispered by embittered expatriates and eyewitness accounts from Nigeria's civil war mingle with Evie's memories of her childhood of her grandfather a watchmaker who attempted to forge a mechanical likeness of his dead wife and of her travels across America Williams's interest in history and storytelling and his talent for evoking multiple voices will remind readers of the work of David Mitchell Peter Carey and Jonathan Safran Foer

Of Starfish Tides and Other Tales Suzanne J. Willis,2022-05-06 The seventeen stories in Of Starfish Tides and Other Tales take place at the edges of this world some veering more deeply into it others towards worlds on the other side With elements of fairy tales and folklore and occasional forays into dystopian futures its constant theme is a search for home and belonging and the darkness at the heart of that search Women stalk through these pages looking for the keeper of human hearts and a cruel map that will answer only to its true owner Faeries are more likely to seek revenge or a human soul than they are to grant wishes A man washes up on a pebbled beach his only means of communication being the haunting songs he plays on an old piano Elsewhere music is the language of love and sorrow and sometimes a weapon Stay awhile here and learn the secrets of a city built for a long gone lover and how to find the land of the dead Learn what it means to chart stories on human skin But remember that between these covers getting what one needs is often different from what one wants Suzanne J Willis is a chronicler of note a documenter of the glorious strange a creator of such wonders and horrors as might make a heart sing or the blood curdle from the introduction by Angela Slatter
