Ceiling Of Sticks Prairie Schooner Prize In Poetry:

Ceiling of Sticks Shane Book, 2010-09-01 Winner of the Prairie Schooner Book Prize in Poetry Shane Book's collection Ceiling of Sticks is a powerful and unflinching sort of documentary poetics. It bears elegiac witness to the effects of global politics on individual lives. Book's poems carry us to Uganda, Ghana, Mali, Trinidad, and Canada's west coast from a religious sacrifice in Tarahumara, Mexico, to Book's ailing grandfather's bedside. They bring an intimate vision of humanity to scenes of inhuman atrocity and suffering, a moment of clarity and empathy to individuals overwhelmed by war or other man-made catastrophes. The attentiveness of the poems and meditative lyrics reveal a careful allegiance to their subjects and a fearless refusal to turn away. Filled with experiences of Africa and Latin America, California and the Caribbean, family and lost love, these poems resonate with the intensity of truth as it is lived and written. The Prairie Schooner Book Prize James Engelhardt, Marianne Kunkel, Kwame Dawes, 2020-04-01 After ten years of selecting great books from writers new and established, Prairie Schooner celebrates the first decade of its Book Prize series by offering this collection of excerpts from each year's winners in fiction and poetry. Writers such as Brock Clarke, Anne Finger, Rynn Williams, and Paul Guest open windows to ordinary and fantastic experience, showcasing the liveliness and power of contemporary literature. Greg Hrbek's darkly comic genre-bending tales stand alongside Ted Gilley's stories about achieving bliss through pain, and John Keeble's reflections on community and the difficulty of love. Here, Shane Book's poems serve as an elegiac witness to suffering, while Kathleen Flenniken's poems consider ordinary women constructing their own significance, and Kara Candito's explore sex, loss, and human passions. Whether the topic is fantastic or quotidian, childbirth or monsters, South American airplane disaster, or suburban Wisconsin, this writing carries us to the furthest reaches of human experience. Please Excuse this Poem Brett Fletcher Lauer, Lynn Melnick, 2015 Young readers find their poetic peers as poets in their 20s and 30s present a poetry anthology dedicated to what it means to be a teenager and young adult in today's world. 240pp Coming Close Mari L'Esperance, Tomas Q. Morin, 2013-07-03 This collection of essays pays tribute to Philip Levine as teacher and mentor. Throughout his fifty-year teaching career, the Pulitzer Prize-winning Levine taught scores of younger poets, many of whom went on to become famous in their own right. These forty essays honor and celebrate one of our most vivid and gifted poets. Whether in Fresno, New York, Boston, Detroit, or any of the other cities where Levine taught, his students benefited from his sharp, humorous honesty in the classroom. In these personal essays, poets spanning a number of generations reveal how their lives and work were forever altered by studying with Levine. The heartfelt tributes illuminate how one dedicated teacher's intangible gifts can make a vast difference in the life of a developing poet, as well as providing insight into the changing tenor of the poetry workshop in the American university setting. Here, poets as diverse as Nick Flynn and David St. John, Sharon Olds and Larry Levis, Ada Limón and Mark Levine, Malena Morling and Lawson Fusao Inada are united in their deep regard for Philip Levine. The voices echo and reverberate as each strikes its own honoring tone. Contributors: Aaron Belz, Ciaran Berry.

A Mind Like This Susan Blackwell Ramsey,2012-09-01 Winner of the Prairie Schooner Book Prize in Poetry Susan Blackwell Ramsey s A Mind Like This is a work of humor and wit unexpectedly delightful and full of surprises as it reflects on the oddness of everyday life the natural world literary history popular culture and more Everything is fair game for Ramsey who finds poetry in love and sickness and life of course but also in knitting and unreliable bladders and the peculiar name of Kalamazoo Neruda makes an appearance as do Eric Clapton and Brahms Leonard and Virginia Woolf and Jimmy Stewart Whether observing the pickled heads of Peter the Great s offenders wondering How to Seduce Henry David Thoreau becoming the insecure voice of Kalamazoo or puzzling over the intricacies of the mind that blocks a dear friend s birthday while preserving the name of Emily Dickinson s dog in perpetuity Ramsey s collection is wise and funny allusive and deeply felt
