David Nelson, Charles Raith II, 2017-07-27

Ecumenism A Guide for the Perplexed is a comprehensive introduction to the methods achievements and future prospects of the modern ecumenical movement The authors begin the volume by charting out a serviceable definition of ecumenism a term that has long been a source of confusion for students of theology and church history They review the chronology of the modern ecumenical movement and highlight the major events figures accomplishments and impasses This historical survey is followed by critical examinations of three significant challenges for contemporary ecumenical theology and practice Along the way the authors provide commentary upon the difficulties and prospects that the ecumenical movement might anticipate as it enters this new millennium

Essays in Ecumenical Theology I Ivana Noble, 2018-11-26 In the first volume of Essays in Ecumenical Theology Ivana Noble depicts differences between what she calls a sectarian outlook and one which engages in the search for common roots dialogical relationships and shared mission in a world that has largely become post Christian but often also post secular Drawing on both Western and Orthodox scholarship and expressing her own positions Noble sketches what ecumenical theology is how it is linked to spirituality the methods it uses how it developed during the twentieth century and the challenges it faces Specific studies deal with controversial interpretations of Jan Hus Catholic Modernism the problematic heritage of the totalitarian regimes and responses to the current humanitarian crisis

Cavanaugh, 2020-12-28 This volume differs from many quincentennial discussions of the Protestant Reformation and ecumenical scholarship more generally in that it shifts the focus from Europe and the West to the global South where ecumenism s promises and challenges are quite different In postcolonial and post missionary Africa the churches continue to expand competition among denominations is lively and Christian rivalry with Islam is often a reality In Latin America Protestants have severely eroded the Catholic Church s hegemony originally forged in the zeal of the Counter Reformation to combat the perceived errors of Luther and Calvin In India the Christian churches are a tiny beleaguered minority facing an increasingly militant Hindu nationalism These essays pay close attention to the different contexts of intra Christian relationships worldwide the actual situation on the ground If ecumenism will succeed it cannot be simply a matter of experts at a conference attempting to agree about doctrines abstracted from the contexts in which they were forged the contexts in which doctrinal disagreements caused ecclesial ruptures or the contexts in which Christians continue to live out our divided existence This volume attempts to be sensitive to the lived experience of divided Christians in whatever part of the world they find themselves
