The Oxford Handbook of Suicide and Self-Injury

Matthew K. Nock, 2014-05-08 Suicide is a perplexing human behavior that remains among the leading causes of death worldwide responsible for more deaths each year than all wars, genocide and homicide combined. Although suicide and other forms of self-injury have baffled scholars and clinicians for thousands of years, the past few decades have brought significant leaps in our understanding of these behaviors. This volume provides a comprehensive summary of the most important and exciting advances in our understanding of suicide and self-injury and our ability to predict and prevent it. Comprised of a formidable who's who in the field, the handbook covers the full spectrum of topics in suicide and self-injury across the lifespan, including the classification of different self-injurious behaviors, epidemiology, assessment techniques, and intervention. Chapters probe relevant issues in our society surrounding suicide, including assisted suicide and euthanasia, suicide terrorism, overlap between suicidal behavior and interpersonal violence, ethical considerations for suicide researchers, and current knowledge on survivors of suicide. The most comprehensive handbook on suicide and self-injury to date, this volume is a must-read text for graduate students, fellows, academic and research psychologists, and other researchers working in the brain and behavioral sciences.

Mourning Companion Animals Susan Dowd Stone, 2024-04-11 Mourning Companion Animals is a guidebook for mental health clinicians searching for effective, compassionate resources to guide their clients through the often devastating experience of animal companion loss. A Prison Chaplaincy

Manual Donald Stoesz, Hank Dixon, 2020-07-31 The manual provides a rationale for chaplaincy by using Winnifred Sullivan's three categories of religious secularism: irreligious secularism and areligious secularism to outline the essential and transforming value of spiritual care services. Preface, introduction. The manual provides a history of justice initiatives and chaplaincy services in a Canadian context. Chapters one and two. The manual provides a rationale for spiritual care giver training by showing how chaplaincy courses at a university level can build on the competencies of leadership and core knowledge that many ministers, rabbis, imams, priests, nuns, and other faith group representatives have. Emotional intelligence, professional practice skills, and diversity are additional competencies needed for spiritual care givers to become effective prison chaplains. Chapters three to six. Six principles shape the content of this book: 1. integration of chaplaincy into corrections; chapters three to six; 2. understanding of prison dynamics; chapters seven to ten; 3. complementary use of sociology and psychology; chapters eleven to fourteen; 4. provision of faith formation, rites and rituals, programs, pastoral care, and a ministry of presence chapters fifteen to eighteen 5 ecumenical and multi faith religious accommodation chapters nineteen to twenty one and 6 professional development chapters twenty four and twenty five The manual concludes with a statement of best practices by Dr Thomas Beckner long time chaplaincy educator Correctional Chaplains Keepers of the Cloak p 24 Chaplains are to have highly polished counselling skills strong management and facilitation abilities a working knowledge of various faith group requirements and a strong commitment to serve all residents of the institution regardless of their faith identity or lack thereof
