Handbook of Speech-Language Therapy in Sub-Saharan Africa Ulrike M. Lüdtke, Edward Kija, Mathew Kinyua Karia, 2023-02-03 This book synthesizes research on language development and communication disability in Sub-Saharan Africa and highlights best practices for providing speech and language therapy services to individuals with language communication and hearing disorders across the lifespan. The book brings together a wide range of international contributions from various disciplines such as speech language pathology, audiology, developmental psychology, language education, social work, neurology, neuropsychology, pediatrics, linguistics, pedagogy, and phonetics to provide perspectives on problems, challenges, ideas, concepts, and models to serve the people in Sub-Saharan Africa. Key areas of coverage include: Challenges for speech language therapists in the health sector; Community awareness and the sustainable delivery of services; Culture specific support of communication and language development in early childhood; Malnutrition, dysphagia, feeding difficulties, pediatric HIV and related issues; Communication disability treatments including assessment and intervention; augmentative and alternative communication (AAC) and issues specific to bilingualism and biliteracy; Inclusive education of children with communication disorders with case studies from Rwanda, Tanzania, Kenya, and South Africa. The Handbook of Speech Language Therapy in Sub-Saharan Africa is an essential reference for researchers, professors, and graduate students as well as clinicians, therapists, and other professionals in developmental psychology, speech language pathology, and therapy, social work, neuropsychology, pediatrics, special education, community-based rehabilitation, and all related disciplines.
