Narratives on Becoming Emilie Clucas Leaderman, Jennifer S. Jefferson, Jo Ann Gammel, Sue L. Motulsky, Amy Rutstein-Riley, 2021-07-01 Learning and identity development are lifetime processes of becoming The construction of self of interest to scholars and practitioners in adult development and adult learning is an ongoing process with the self both forming and being formed by lived experience in privileged and oppressive contexts Intersecting identities and the power dynamics within them shape how learners define themselves and others and how they make meaning of their experiences in the world The series I Am What I Become Constructing Identities as Lifelong Learners is an insightful and diverse collection of empirical research and narrative essays in identity development adult development and adult learning The purpose of this series is to publish contributions that highlight the intimate and intricate connections between learning and identity The series aims to assist our readers to understand and nurture adults who are always in the process of becoming We hope to promote reflection and research at the intersection of identity and adult learning at any point across the adult lifespan The rich array of qualitative research designs as well as autobiographic and narrative essays transform and expand our understanding of the lived experience of people both like us and unlike us from the U S and beyond Narratives on Becoming Identity and Lifelong Learning Volume Three of the series explores a myriad of ways that authors personal and professional growth has influenced identity development These chapters provide insights into the intersectional identities and learning of writers Drawing from the multiple paths that comprise the journey of lifelong learning these authors present powerful stories that identify the ways relationships environments culture travel and values shape their identities use literacy teaching and learning as vehicles for experimenting with new identities negotiate multiple identities contexts and transitions involved in becoming and construct meaning Through their narrative essays and ethnographic autobiographical accounts the authors in this volume illuminate the power of transformational learning during life changing events and transitions Praise for Narratives on Becoming Identity and Lifelong Learning The third volume in the I Am What I Become series Narratives on Becoming Identity and Lifelong Learning invites readers into the lives of educators from around the world This book includes important narratives from students secondary educators and post secondary educators alike highlighting how race class gender and a wide range of other intersectional identities shape the diverse lived experiences of educators and their students This volume also serves as an important reminder for all of us that the learning process continues across a lifetime and transcends the limits of the traditional classroom Brian Bicknell President Manchester Community College We all pay lip service to the importance of lifelong learning but what is it exactly and how does it come about The connections between identity and learning are intriguing and complex especially when it comes to adult learners In this very thoughtfully organized collection researchers present qualitative and narrative studies along with personal narratives to explore identity development in formal and informal learning environments Contributions from varied cultural contexts most with powerful and moving stories to tell provide insight into how identity meaning making and adult learning and development intersect and influence each other Psychologists scholars and educators interested in identity development and meaning making will find inspiration and fresh understanding in this innovative and enlightening series Ruthellen Josselson Author Paths to Fulfillment Women's Search for Meaning and Identity This innovative series on adult development is inspiring and substantive We hear voices from the margins and stories of courage We read identity formation narratives by young adults and experienced professionals who share impressive capacities for transparency vulnerability and self reflection Many of the narratives are embedded in rigorous qualitative research that highlights diverse ways that identity is shaped through social positionality lived experience the quest for individuation and willingness to encounter life as a dynamic learning process Jared D Kass Lesley University Author A Person Centered Approach to Psychospiritual Maturation Mentoring Psychological Resilience and Inclusive Community in Higher Education Identities at Work Alan Brown, Simone R. Kirpal, Felix Rauner, 2007-03-31 This book examines continuity and change of identity formation processes at work under conditions of modern working processes and labor market flexibility By bringing together perspectives from sociology psychology organizational management and vocational education and training it connects the debates of skills formation human resources development and careers with individual's work commitment and professional orientations
