Crasher Reindeer Martial Arts Christmas:

Crasher, the Unknown Reindeer Paul Turse, 2015-12-01 Back in antiquity before Santa had established himself as Father Christmas he was always experimenting like a master football coach with different pairings of his reindeer and with different formations Long before the days of Rudolph Santa had only seven main reindeer Dasher Dancer Blitzen Cupid Vixen and Comet lined up two by two with one lead reindeer Donner the strongest like thunder The problem with one leader is that during severe rain and wind no reindeer not even Donner could always maintain control of the herd and the sleigh The weather report for this coming Christmas Eve predicted that the heaviest and most dangerous storm in years would be hitting the area within the next few days Huge hail stones were expected so powerful that should one hit Donner or even the sleigh it would be disastrous So Santa decides that two lead reindeer might be the best approach assuming he can find another deer to complement Donner Among all the reindeer in training there are only two experienced enough for the job Gaitre and Crasher Gaitre has great coordination and balance But the other reindeer do not appear to respect Gaitre because he is a bit aloof and independent and not a team player And of course they think that Gaitre is stuck up so Santa does not think that they will follow him at least not Donner Crasher on the other hand is the strongest reindeer in the herd even stronger than Donner and would be sure to command the respect of the latter However Crasher has the tendency to be a showoff especially after taking martial arts Against his better judgment Santa gives Crasher the job Of course Santa does not have much of a choice After crashing Santa's sleigh during a rehearsal for Christmas Eve Crasher is no longer allowed to lead the sleigh When he loses his temper and misuses his martial arts training he accidentally kicks Gaitre in his right foreleg causing the poor reindeer to hop in the most awkward and silly looking manner especially when prancing on his hind legs with his forelegs dangling in front of him His unmanly gait alienates him all the more Making it now clear that Donner alone will lead the sleigh Santa sends Crasher to the barn However Crasher runs away to the other side of the North Pole where he encounters the evil twin brother of Santa Andy Claus who has his own elves workshop and reindeer everything that the good Santa has except one thing his reindeer can't fly If Crasher can steal the secret of flight from the good Santa and give it to the evil one Crasher will be rewarded by being able to lead the evil Santa's sleigh all by himself and thus become famous When Crasher brings the secret of flight to the evil Santa the errant reindeer discovers that the evil elves are packing the gifts with coal in an effort to eventually ruin Christmas He also learns that the reindeer are actually ninja reindeer After an exciting martial arts battle with the Ninja Reindeer Crasher must return to the good Santa before the end of the winter solstice or else the good Santa and his reindeer will not be able to fly and thus there will be no Christmas As Crasher makes it back a violent storm erupts and giant hail stones which would make travel dangerous start to swirl through the air Luckily Crasher is able to return in time to attempt the perilous run and perhaps save Christmas and Santa declares that Crasher can lead the sleigh with Donner Crasher however has another plan His decision will demonstrate that fame is no substitute for honor and that very often the most courageous and heroic are not always the most famous In fact they are often unknown For permission to produce this copyrighted play and for royalty info contact the author at samurairaider comcast net How the Movies Saved Christmas William D.
