Democracy Online Democracy Online:

Democracy Online Peter M. Shane, 2004-07-15 Taking a multidisciplinary approach that they identify as a cyber realist research agenda the contributors to this volume examine the prospects for electronic democracy in terms of its form and practice while avoiding the pitfall of treating the benefits of electronic democracy as being self evident The debates question what electronic democracy needs to accomplish in order to revitalize democracy and what the current state of electronic democracy can teach us about the challenges and opportunities for implementing democratic technology initiatives

Promise and Problems of E-Democracy Challenges of Online Citizen Engagement OECD, 2004-01-19 This book highlights policy lessons in using ICTs to provide information opportunities for consultation and public participation in policy making It includes numerous examples of current practice from 12 OECD member countries Australia Canada Electronic

Government Roland Traunmueller, 2004-08-18 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the Third International Conference on Electronic Government EGOV 2004 held in Zaragoza Spain in August September 2004 The 92 revised papers presented together with an introduction and abstracts of 16 workshop papers were carefully reviewed and selected from numerous submissions The papers are organized in topical sections on e democracy interoperability process management technical issues e voting services processes and general assistance empowering regions methods and tools g2g collaboration change and risk management e governance ID management and security policies and strategies geographical information systems legal aspects teaching and empowering designing Web services public information and regional developments in global context The Virtual Community, revised edition Howard Rheingold, 2000-10-23 Howard Rheingold tours the virtual community of online networking Howard Rheingold has been called the First Citizen of the Internet In this book he tours the virtual community of online networking He describes a community that is as real and as much a mixed bag as any physical community one where people talk argue seek information organize politically fall in love and dupe others At the same time that he tells moving stories about people who have received online emotional support during devastating illnesses he acknowledges a darker side to people s behavior in cyberspace Indeed contends Rheingold people relate to each other online much the same as they do in physical communities Originally published in 1993 The Virtual Community is more timely than ever This edition contains a new chapter in which the author revisits his ideas about online social communication now that so much more of the world s population is wired It also contains an extended bibliography The Civic Web David M. Anderson, Michael Cornfield, 2003 Political web sites and e mail lists were novelties in 1996 By 2000 they were a news trend By 2004 they will be a part of every electoral and policy campaign News seekers activists and decision makers increasingly turn to the Net as a matter of course The Civic Web delineates the basic issues opportunities and dilemmas posed by the introduction of computer networked communications into U S national politics Leading scholars from several academic disciplines join pioneer practitioners of online advocacy discussion and law in considering how the Internet can host and even research data and reviews of existing studies in the field Preventing Online Gender-based Violence in the Nordics: Nikulainen, Elina, 2021-11-19 Available online <https://pub.norden.org/temanord2021/549> Gender based violence is defined as harmful acts directed at an individual or a group of individuals based on their gender Online gender based violence is a serious concern in the Nordics and has consequences for both individuals and society as a whole It threatens gender equality security democracy and the freedom of speech As part of the Presidency of the Nordic Council of Ministers for Gender Equality and LGBTI in 2021 Finland has hosted an online conference Gender based Hate Threat and Harassment on the Internet The aim of the conference held on 10-11 June 2021 was to recognize good practices and concrete measures to prevent online gender based violence in the Nordic region This publication consists of key takeaways from the conference presented by Gender Equality and Inclusion Expert Elina Nikulainen Online Incivility and Public Debate Gina Masullo Chen, 2017-06-25 This book investigates what influence online incivility through user generated comments on news websites has on public debate Built on the premise that public discussions about important topics are vital to a healthy democracy the book analyzes 3 508 online comments in order to understand what factors in comments make them more susceptible to incivility defined as nasty remarks rife with profanity It also examines comments for attributes of deliberation which are discussions across difference supported by evidence and rational arguments Using an experiment the book shows that uncivil comments jumpstart a chain reaction leading first to negative emotion and then to greater intention to get politically involved Overall Online Incivility and Public Debate Nasty Talk argues that while incivility mars online debate it may also spark interest in important topics and allow for positive deliberative moments of quality discussion
