The Routledge Handbook of Attachment (3 volume set) Paul Holmes, Steve Farnfield, 2022-07-30 The Routledge Handbooks of Attachment provide a uniquely detailed yet accessible approach to attachment Paul Holmes and Steve Farnfield have assembled an international selection of contributors and here present three volumes covering theory assessment and implications and interventions The Routledge Handbook of Attachment Theory presents a broadly based introduction to attachment theory and associated areas written in an accessible style by experts from around the world The book covers the basic theories of attachment and discusses the similarities and differences of the two predominant schools of attachment theory The Routledge Handbook of Attachment Assessment provides a detailed discussion of the formal measurement tools available to assess attachment across the age range including with families It contains comprehensive chapters on many attachment based validated procedures for assessing parenting and evaluating risk to enable professionals to decide what type of assessment is appropriate who should conduct it and the usefulness of the results The Routledge Handbook of Attachment Implications and Interventions offers an introduction to therapies produced as a result of the popularity of attachment studies These therapies can be divided into two categories those that are attachment based in that they use evidence based attachment assessments in their development or attachment informed in that the theories of attachment have been integrated into the practice of existing schools of therapy The Routledge Handbooks of Attachment are indispensable guides for clinical psychologists psychiatrists and social workers working with and assessing children and families clinicians in training and students International Yearbook for Legal Anthropology, Volume 7 René Kuppe, Richard Potz, 2023-07-24 Volume 7 of Law and Anthropology brings together a collection of studies that discuss legal problems raised by cultural differences between people and the law to which they are subject This volume developed from the idea that it can be useful to consider current discussions in various legal systems facing issues of cultural difference that cannot be regarded as legal problems related to indigenous societies alone The book focuses on contradiction between national law and complex and diverse kinship structures which are essential for the cultural identity of both indigenous groups and cultural minorities The social construction of gender relations and gender conflicts is an important theme in many essays Some of the essays examine the area of conflict between cultural practices and universal human rights standards The demand for cultural rights may collide with human rights standards especially with the principles of gender equality This volume will be of great interest to academics and to all those with practical involvement in the field of cultural pluralism Previously published by VWGO Verlag in Austria Law and Anthropology will be published and distributed by Martinus Nijhoff Publishers from Volume 7 onwards Nursing Care Planning Resource, Volume 3: Child and Neonatal Health, 1st South Asia Edition C.N.
