Child Care And Culture Lessons From Africa:

Child Care and Culture Robert A. Levine, Sarah Levine, Suzanne Dixon, Amy Richman, P. Herbert Leiderman, Constance H. Keefer, T. Berry Brazelton, 1996-09-13 Child Care and Culture examines parenthood infancy and early childhood in an African community revealing patterns unanticipated by current theories of child development and raising provocative questions about the concept of normal child care Comparing the Gusii people of Kenya with the American white middle class the authors show how divergent cultural priorities create differing conditions for early childhood development Combining the perspectives of social anthropology pediatrics and developmental psychology the authors demonstrate how child care customs can be responsive to varied socioeconomic demographic and cultural conditions without inflicting harm on children This text will be of interest to researchers in child development and anthropology

Review of Early Childhood Policy and Programs in Sub-Saharan Africa Amy Jo Reinhold, 1997-01-01 The collaborative efforts of Colombia's Department of National Planning DNP and the World Bank has produced the National Evaluation System of Public Sector Performance SYNERGY Put in place by the Special Division for Evaluation in DNP this system has been designed and implemented to change the public sector from an inward looking process oriented body which sometimes restrains economic and social progress into a more dynamic results oriented partner of the community and private sector in development This report explores the critical factors in making SYNERGY a successful evaluation system Such factors include ways of making it an effective management tool promoting civil society participation by focusing on results for people and leveraging on their energy and resource defining a constructive learning process for implementation and providing an enabling environment for a results oriented public sector

Mental Health Services for Minority Ethnic Children and Adolescents Carol Joughin, Mhemooda Malek, 2004-03-15 The authors consider how ethnicity is defined and how the field of mental health has developed in the West according to Western concepts of health and well being and show how an understanding of the key practice issues and policy and academic debates can enable professionals to develop and fine tune their cultural competence

Parenting from Afar and the Reconfiguration of Family Across Distance Maria Rosario T. De Guzman, Jill Rena Brown, Carolyn P. Edwards, 2018 An increasing number of families around the world are now living apart from one another subsequently causing the defining and redefining of their relationships roles within the family unit and how to effectively maintain a sense of familial cohesion through distance Edited by Maria Rosario T de Guzman Jill Brown and Carolyn Pope Edwards Parenting From Afar and the Reconfiguration of Family Across Distance uniquely highlights how families both in times of crisis and within normative cultural practices organize and configure themselves and their parenting through physical separation In this volume readers are given a unique look into the lives of families around the world that are affected by separation due to a wide range of circumstances including economic migration fosterage divorce military deployment education and orphanhood Contributing authors from the fields of psychology anthropology sociology education and geography all delve deep into the daily realities of these families and share insight on why they live apart from one another how families are redefined across long distances and the impact absence has on various members within the unit An especially timely volume Parenting From Afar and the Reconfiguration of Family Across Distance offers readers an important understanding and examination of family life in response to social change and shifts in the caregiving context

Psychology Serving Humanity: Proceedings of the 30th International Congress of Psychology Saths Cooper, Kopano Ratele, 2014-06-27 This is the first of two volumes collecting the key proceedings of the 30th International Congress of Psychology the first to be held in Africa in the 123 years of its history The theme of the conference was Psychology Serving Humanity a recognition of psychology's unfulfilled mission in the majority world and a reflection of what that world requires from psychology Mainstream Psychology finds its largest number of exponents and leading personalities in the high income countries of the global West The Other Psychologies referred to by different names are scattered across the rest of the world Some of the names of these other forms of Psychology include indigenous Psychology The main driver of indigenous and other forms of non mainstream Psychology is the endeavour to embed the discipline in the dynamics of local societies Psychology has entered an interesting era however While the dominant philosophy underpinning the discipline remains Western Psychology in the majority world in 2000s may have reached a tipping point It took over a hundred years but the 2004 and 2012 International Congresses of Psychology held in China and South Africa heralded a newfound possibility for the discipline There is an opening of the field to potentially new thought and forms of the practice of Psychology These proceedings are published in the hope that all psychologists especially those located in well resourced institutions in the West confront the divided reality that characterizes Psychology so as to creatively consider the opportunity opened up by the growing field at the peripheries Care was taken when assembling both conference and proceedings to ensure that the entire international psychological community was represented Volume One contains contributions to Majority World Psychology Volume Two contains contributions to Western Psychology

Perspectives on the Legal Guardianship of Children in Côte d'Ivoire, South Africa, and Uganda Rofiah Ololade Sarumi, Ann Strode, 2018-05-23 This brief reference surveys the national policy of three representative African countries on the legal guardianship of children who are without parents or families Focusing on the widely varying legal systems of C te d Ivoire South Africa and Uganda the authors highlight guardianship as emblematic of the continent s shortcomings in child protection laws The book s key objective is bridging the communal aspects of traditional African society with the global standards set forth by the Convention on the Rights of the Child and other international entities To this end the three frameworks discussed here are compared and their strengths and limitations evaluated as applied to child protection standards in terms of core guardianship issues Holders of parental authority and responsibilities Appointment of a legal guardian Who qualifies as a legal guardian Responsibilities of a legal guardian in relation to the child Termination of guardianships The primary audience for Perspectives on the Legal Guardianship of Children in C te d Ivoire South Africa and Uganda includes academics researchers and students in the fields of children s rights human rights legal guardianship and international law It will also prove a useful reference for NGOs that focus on children s rights social workers and practitioners operating within the context of these three countries professionals working within the African human rights system and governmental law and policymakers

The Sacrificed Generation Lesley A. Sharp, 2002-09-03 Youth and identity politics figure prominently in this provocative study of personal and collective memory in Madagascar A deeply nuanced ethnography of historical consciousness it challenges many cross cultural investigations of youth for its key actors are not adults but schoolchildren Lesley Sharp refutes dominant assumptions that African children are the helpless victims of postcolonial crises incapable of organized sustained collective thought or action She insists instead on the political agency of Malagasy youth who as they decipher their current predicament offer potent historicized critiques of colonial violence nationalist resistance foreign mass media and schoolyard survival Sharp asserts that autobiography and national history are inextricably linked and therefore must be read in tandem a process that exposes how political consciousness is forged in the classroom within the home and on the street in Madagascar Keywords Critical pedagogy

Child and Adolescent Development Anne Stevenson, 2018-04-16 Global public health has improved vastly during the past 25 years and especially in the survival of infants and young children However many of these children particularly in Africa continue to live in poverty and in unhealthy unsupportive environments and will not be able to meet their developmental potential In other words they will survive but not thrive The UN s Sustainable Development Goals SDGs stress sustainable development not just survival and disease reduction and the Global Strategy for Women s Children s and Adolescents Health proposes a Survive end preventable deaths Thrive ensure health and wellbeing and Transform expand enabling environments agenda For children to thrive they must make good developmental progress from birth until the end of adolescence Addressing the social determinants of developmental problems this volume offers a broad contextualised understanding of the factors that impact on children and adolescents in Africa Unlike other works on the subject it is Africa wide in its scope with case studies in Ethiopia Kenya Malawi Nigeria Rwanda and South Africa Covering mental health as well as physical and social development it looks at policies and practice culture and priorities for research identifying challenges and proposing solutions

Children on the Move in Africa Élodie Razy, Marie Rodet, 2016 A timely interdisciplinary comparative and historical perspective on African childhood migration that draws on the experience of children themselves to look at where why and how they move within and beyond the continent and the impact of African child migration globally
