

PRIZE GIVING SPEECH - 2011

Madam Chairman, special guests, Governors, ladies and gentlemen, members of staff past and present, and students, both past and present, I am delighted to welcome you all to our annual Prize Giving held, as has become traditional, in the magnificent setting of the Liverpool Cathedral.

Once again, I will try to attempt to recognise just some of the achievements of our Belvedere Girls as we reflect on the 2010/11 Academic Year.

But before we begin I would like to welcome to the cathedral and, indeed, to our great city of Liverpool, the Chief Executive of Girls Days School Trust, Helen Fraser.

As you will see from your programme notes, Helen joined the GDST as Chief Executive in January 2010 after almost 40 years in book publishing, most recently as managing director of Penguin books.

Helen won a scholarship to Oxford where she read English Language and Literature, leaving with a first class degree in 1970. She was awarded a CBE for Services to Publishing in the New Years Honours of 2010 and now leads the GDST who are the largest single educator of girls in the UK with 24 outstanding girls' independent schools and two equally outstanding Academies, Belvedere and Birkenhead. The GDST is also the largest educational charity in the country.

Chief Guest Prize Giving Speech:

ENGLISH MANTRA Janardan Mishra, 2013-11 English Mantra is specially designed for the teachers and the students to develop their English language fluency through different activities. The outstanding feature of this book is that it contains specially designed curricula for different levels of students and guidelines for teachers to adopt those curricula. Now a days the teachers are not getting proper curriculum or syllabus for teaching Spoken Communicative English in schools and colleges. They are also longing for different types of ELT activities for their students. This book will be very helpful for them. This impressive manual will also enable the readers to improve their communication skills dramatically. It will be instrumental to improve their English pronunciation and acquire the correct patterns of accent, rhythm and intonation. One part of the book is dedicated for simple grammar items like sentence patterns and grammar based conversations which will be handy for the ESL learners to understand the language better. Chapters like Group Discussion, Personal Interview, SWOT Analysis, Situation Reaction Test and Writing Resumes will also be very convenient for job grooming of the students. Finally students can utilise this book for self assessment of their language skills. LSRW. Hence the book is a single panacea for the whole problem of communication.

School Organisation and Pupil Involvement Ronald King, 2017-05-08 First published in 1973, this book is based on research carried out by Ronald King on integral parts of school organisation including the assembly, uniform, rewards and punishments, games and out of school activities, curriculum, prefectorial system and school councils in a sample of seventy-two schools. It measures and explores the level of pupils' involvement in the school in terms of their evaluations and effective dispositions in relation to pupil age, sex and social background. This book will be a valuable resource for those studying the sociology and history of education as well as educational research and school organisation.

Daily Graphic I.K. Nkrumah, 1976-06-24 From Fighting Napoleon to the Scottish Military Academy Rosslyn Macphail, 2024-12-30 Based on Captain John Orr's previously unseen campaign diary and personal documents, this is the first biography of the man who would become Superintendent of the Scottish Naval Military Academy (SNMA). We follow John during his eighteen months in Portugal and Spain, informed by his first-hand accounts of the Battle of Salamanca, the siege of Burgos and fighting in the Pyrenees. Later he fought at Quatre Bras and was wounded at Waterloo. He was retired on full pension in 1821. Ten years later, aged 41, resigning himself that he would no longer be commissioned into a regiment, he enrolled as a captain in the Edinburgh Militia. Almost immediately he was asked to become the Superintendent of the Scottish Naval Military Academy, which was situated in Edinburgh. It had been established six years earlier and was struggling after the Directors had made a number of bad decisions. John's appointment stabilised the SNMA and the enrolment started to grow. He had enthusiasm for his job and managed to mix discipline with affection for the boys. In 1832 the Duke of Wellington became President. By the mid 1840s it had become a successful military college. It sent over a thousand young men into the services, including over a hundred who fought in the Crimean War. Nearly every British army regiment had at least one officer who had studied at the SNMA Through John s letters the history of the Academy is interwoven with a description of the Orr family John died in 1879 aged 89 years old He was the last surviving member of the Black Watch who had fought at Waterloo The book is brought to life with paintings and photographs of John his family his uniform and pages from his Peninsular War diary It is an intimate portrait of a soldier who served his country on and off the battle field Sites of imperial memory Dominik Geppert, Frank Muller, 2016-05-16 Europe s great colonial empires have long been a thing of the past but the memories they generated are still all around us They have left deep imprints on the different memory communities that were affected by the processes of establishing running and dismantling these systems of imperial rule and they are still vibrant and evocative today This volume brings together a collection of innovative and fresh studies exploring different sites of imperial memory those conceptual and real places where the memories of former colonial rulers and of former colonial subjects have crystallised into a lasting form The volume explores how memory was built up re shaped and preserved across different empires continents and centuries It shows how it found concrete expression in stone and bronze how it adhered to the stories that were told and retold about great individuals and how it was suppressed denied and neglected Daily Graphic Elvis D. Aryeh, 2002-07-03 Sinhala Language and Culture Martin Wickramasinghe, 1975 Daily Graphic George Aidoo, 1970-07 Junior Graphic Mavis Kitcher (Mrs), 2005-08-03 Sri Lanka Literary Essays & Sketches Charles Sarvan, 2011-04-08 This anthology consists of articles on Sri Lankan literary works written with a few exceptions in English For the benefit of non Sri Lankan readers something of the necessary historical political and cultural background is provided Broadening into the field of cultural studies the volume includes comment on films based on or relevant to Sri Lanka Published over several years the first in 1989 the articles reflect changes in the Island and therefore in the concern of its writers Section 2 Related articles consists of a reading of Conrad s Heart of Darkness from a Buddhist and Hindu perspective an examination of the term racism and a meditation on an aspect of the Sri Lankan exile experience Sketches the last section contains two imaginative pieces and a factual tsunami related incident Altogether this anthology will be of use not only to students of the Island s English language literature but also to those who have a general interest in Asia and Sri Lanka
