Child Sized History Fictions Of The Past In U S Classrooms:

Child-sized History Sara L. Schwebel, 2011 The classroom canon of young adult novels in historical context

Next-Generation Memory and Ukrainian Canadian Children's Historical Fiction Mateusz Świątlicki, 2023-03-24 This is the first book monograph devoted to Anglophone Ukrainian Canadian children's historical fiction published between 1991 and 2021 It consists of five chapters offering cross sectional and interdisciplinary readings of 41 books novels novellas picturebooks short stories and a graphic novel The first three chapters focus on texts about the complex process of becoming Ukrainian Canadian showcasing the experiences of the first two waves of Ukrainian immigration to Canada including encounters with Indigenous Peoples and the First World War Internment The last two chapters are devoted to the significance of the cultural memory of the Holodomor the Great Famine of 1932 1933 and the Second World War for Ukrainian Canadians All the chapters demonstrate the entanglements of Ukrainian and Canadian history and point to the role Anglophone children's literature can play in preventing the symbolical seeds of memory from withering This volume argues that reading imagining and reimagining history can lead to the formation of beyond textual next generation memory Such memory created through reading is multidimensional as it involves the interpretation of both the present and the past by an individual whose reality has been directly or indirectly shaped by the past over which they have no influence Next generation memory is of anticipatory character which means that authors of historical fiction anticipate the readers both present day and future not to have direct links to any witnesses of the events they discuss and to have little knowledge of the transcultural character of the Ukrainian Canadian diaspora

Fictions of Integration Naomi Lesley, 2017-03-03 This book examines how children's and young adult literature addresses and interrogates the legacies of American school desegregation Such literature narrates not only the famous battles to implement desegregation in the South in places like Little Rock Arkansas but also more insidious and less visible legacies such as re segregation within schools through the mechanism of disability diagnosis Novelizations of children's experiences with school desegregation comment upon the politics of getting African American children access to white schools but more than this as school stories they also comment upon how structural racism operates in the classroom and mutates over the course of decades through the pedagogical practices depicted in literature for young readers Lesley combines approaches from critical race theory disability studies and educational philosophy in order to investigate how the educational market simultaneously constrains how racism in schools can be presented to young readers and also provides channels for radical critiques of pedagogy and visions of alternative systems The volume examines a range of titles from novels that directly engage the Brown v Board of Education decision such as Sharon Draper's Fire From the Rock and Dorothy Sterling's Mary Jane to novels that engage less obvious legacies of desegregation such as Cynthia Voigt's Dacey's Song Sharon Flake's Pinned Virginia Hamilton's The Planet of Junior Brown and Louis Sachar's Holes This book will be of interest to scholars of American studies children's literature and educational philosophy and history The Social Studies FIELD Guide Joe Schmidt, Glenn Wiebe, 2025-03-07 Your roadmap to creating engaging and impactful social studies lessons that prepare students for the adventures and challenges of tomorrow In today's rapidly changing society it is essential for students to develop critical thinking and evidence based reasoning skills The traditional model of rote memorization of dates and facts in social studies classrooms no longer engages students or adequately prepares them for the complexities of the modern world In The Social Studies FIELD Guide authors Joe Schmidt and Glenn Wiebe illuminate a transformative path for educators to improve social studies education by moving away from memorization and towards meaningful and active learning This comprehensive guide delves into the heart of inquiry based learning integrating the rich tapestry of primary sources and the cutting edge potential of educational technology As the educational landscape evolves this FIELD Foundational Evidence Inquiry EdTech and Lesson Design Guide is a beacon for teachers seeking to bring history and civics alive for their students By utilizing primary sources and encouraging students to think critically about historical events from multiple perspectives the FIELD framework fosters a deeper understanding of past events and their relevance to current issues through Innovative Framework Provides a cohesive structure through the FIELD acronym for creating dynamic social studies lessons Research Driven Insights Offers a synthesis of key research in social studies education equipping teachers with evidence based strategies for classroom success Practical Application Presents Hikes in each chapter offering instructional ideas that translate theoretical concepts into actionable classroom practices Technology Integration Guides educators in leveraging educational technology tools to enhance student engagement and learning outcomes Focus on Inquiry Integrates inquiry based learning where students explore authentic questions and investigate real world problems Step into the future of social studies education with The Social Studies FIELD Guide an indispensable resource that distills decades of teaching expertise into actionable insights empowering educators to craft meaningful and engaging lessons without the burden of sifting through overwhelming resources Each chapter is a wellspring of tools examples and practical ideas ensuring that social studies teachers can navigate the wilderness of modern education with confidence and creativity The Child Gaze Amanda M. Greenwell, 2024-11-20 The Child Gaze Narrating Resistance in American Literature theorizes the child gaze as a narrative strategy for social critique in twentieth and twenty first century US literature for children and adults Through a range of texts including James Baldwin's Little Man Little Man Mildred D Taylor's Roll of Thunder Hear My Cry Toni Morrison's The Bluest Eye Gene Luen Yang's American Born Chinese and more Amanda M Greenwell focuses on children and their literal acts of looking Detailing how these acts of looking direct the reader she posits that the sightlines of children serve as signals to renegotiate hegemonic ideologies of race ethnicity creed class and gender In her analysis Greenwell shows how acts of looking constitute a flexible and effective narrative strategy capable of operating across multiple points of view focalizations audiences and forms Weaving together scholarship on the US child visual culture studies narrative theory and other critical traditions The Child Gaze explores the ways in which child acts of looking compel readers to look at and with a child character whose gaze encourages critiques of privileged visions of national identity Chapters investigate how child acts of looking allow texts to redraw circles of inclusion around the locus of the child gaze and mobilize childhood as a site of resistance The powerful child gaze can thus disrupt dominant scripts of power widening the lens through which belonging in the US can be understood Children's Biographies of African American Women Sara C. VanderHaagen, 2018-11-15 A study of how rhetoric has shaped the life stories of African American role models in children's literature In Children's Biographies of African American Women Rhetoric Public Memory and Agency Sara C VanderHaagen examines how these biographies encourage young readers to think about themselves as agents in a public world Specifically VanderHaagen illustrates how these works use traditional means to serve progressive ends and thereby examines the rhetorical power of biography in shaping identity and promoting public action Drawing on scholarship in rhetoric memory studies and children's literature VanderHaagen presents rhetorical analyses of biographies of three African American women poet Phillis Wheatley activist Sojourner Truth and educator turned politician Shirley Chisholm published in the United States during the twentieth and twenty first centuries VanderHaagen begins by analyzing how biographical sketches in books for black children published during the 1920s represent Wheatley and Truth The study then shifts to books published between 1949 and 2015 VanderHaagen uses a concept adapted from philosopher Paul Ricoeur the idea of the agential spiral to chart the ways that biographies have used rhetoric to shape the life stories of Wheatley Truth and Chisholm By bringing a critical rhetorical perspective to the study of biographies for children this book advances the understanding of how lives of the past are used persuasively to shape identity and encourage action in the contemporary public world VanderHaagen contributes to the study of rhetoric and African American children's literature and refocuses the field of memory studies on children's biographies a significant but often overlooked genre through which public memories first take shape Exploring History through Young Adult Literature Paula Greathouse, Melanie Hundley, Andrew L. Hostetler, 2024-06-17 Giving students opportunities to read like historians has the potential to move their thinking and understanding of history in monumental ways In Exploring History through Young Adult Literature Middle School Volume 1 each chapter presented in this volume provides middle school readers with approaches and activities for pairing a young adult novel with specific historical events eras or movements Chapters include suggested instructional activities for before during and after reading as well as extension activities that move beyond the text Each chapter concludes with a final discussion on how the spotlighted YA text can inspire students to be moved to take informed action within their communities or beyond Through the reading and study of the young adult novels students are guided to a deeper understanding of history while increasing their literacy practices Didactics and the Modern Robinsonade Ian Kinane, 2019 Didactics and the Modern Robinsonade examines modern and contemporary Robinsonade texts written for young readers looking specifically at the ways in which later adaptations of the Robinson Crusoe story subvert both traditional narrative structures and particular ideological codes within the genre This collection redresses both the gender and geopolitical biases that have characterized most writings within the Robinsonade genre since its inception and includes chapters on little known works of fiction by female authors as well as works from outside the mainstream of Anglo American culture Extending the Ground of Public Confidence Janie Hubbard,2019-09-01 In these times and for future generations students must learn how to analyze constantly changing issues decipher media as truth or fake news and contest highly competitive biased informational sources Students must develop knowledge skills and attitudes necessary for leveraging their capacity as active citizens charged with holding institutions accountable for truthfully addressing and protecting civil liberties Extending the Ground of Public Confidence Teaching Civil Liberties in K 16 Social Studies Education is a book grounded in current scholarship and seeks to address the need for a practical user friendly resource for teaching civil liberties in K 12 social studies and teacher education This book brings together chapter length discussions about various issues introduced first from historic perspectives and then compared and described in modern terms Such topics include though are not limited to disputes surrounding freedom of speech and religion power issues defending property rights debates on security of persons and privacy free exercise of assembly and expression and the endless debate about who can and cannot vote in U S elections Each chapter contains teaching ready inquiry based learning activities framed by the National Council for the Social Studies NCSS College Career and Civic Life C3 Inquiry Arc 2013 Students 1 develop questions and plan investigations 2 apply disciplinary concepts and tools 3 gather evaluate and use evidence and 4 work collaboratively to communicate conclusions and take informed action Lesson ideas engage learners across age groups and grade levels in learning that fosters informed sustainable actions aimed at upholding and protecting civil liberties Building Students' Historical Literacies Jeffery D. Nokes,2013 This book explores the notion of historical literacy adopts a research supported stance on literacy processes and promotes the integration of content area literacy instruction into history content teaching
