Dictionary of Munster Women Writers

1800-2000 Tina O'Toole, 2005 This dictionary will make an important contribution to the knowledge of writing in Munster in both Irish and English over the past 200 years. The dictionary has entries on 560 writers including 220 in Irish. Each entry contains a bibliographical note, a list of key references and a bibliography where applicable. Advances in literary and cultural studies, distinct from primarily historical research on the region of Munster over the last two centuries, enables a new view as a whole of the work of women writers juxtaposes the work of Irish English language and bilingual writers and thereby helps to develop an understanding of the province of Munster as a diverse cultural milieu and focus on the role of regionality in the process of cultural creation. The Munster Women Writers Project, based in the English Department at University College Cork, was a recovery project aiming to make available the basic materials for biographical and literary research and analysis on the extensive number of women writers with Munster backgrounds or strong Munster connections in the period 1800-2000. The objective was to make more information on these writers available for future literary historians, feminist critics and social historians to develop knowledge and understanding of this material. By making available the basic materials for scholarly research in this field, the project aims to help generate critical analysis of the role of regional class and gender factors in the formation of writers and the intersection of these factors in the nature of the work produced. Irish Women Writers

Irish Novelists and the Victorian Age James H. Murphy, 2011-01-13 This is the first comprehensive study of the neglected Irish writers of the Victorian age whose work was highly popular with the British reading audience and therefore disparaged and largely forgotten from the era of W B Yeats and the Irish Literary Revival with its culturally nationalist agenda onwards It is based on a reading of around 370 novels by 150 authors including William Carleton the peasant novelist who wielded much influence and Charles Lever whose serious work was destroyed by the slur of rollicking as well as Joseph Sheridan LeFanu George Moore Emily Lawless Somerville and Ross Bram Stoker and three of the leading authors from the new woman movement Sarah Grand Iota and George Egerton James H Murphy examines their writing in a variety of contexts the political economic and cultural
