Pondering Life Issues / Gedagtegange Chris Jones, 2022-09-23 Over the past seven years the author has written several articles for the media often on request This volume comprises the most important of these articles The first 50 articles Part 1 appear in English and the last 39 Deel 2 in Afrikaans The footnotes indicate who published the specific article and when The latter is important because it puts each article in context Sometimes the content in this volume differs slightly from that which has appeared in the media Some of the articles have also been published by other than the indicated media platform daily newspaper but they are not mentioned here There are some themes that overlap in English and Afrikaans but are not direct translations of each other More than one article has been written on certain themes and some articles were co authored with colleagues as indicated in the footnotes Breaking Barriers C.N. van der Merwe, 2023-10-16 Oxwagon Sentinel Christoph Marx, 2008 This new approach to the social history of Afrikaner nationalism looks into the diverse causes for the rise of a political movement which was to shape South African history profoundly during the 20th Century In the 1930s Afrikaner nationalism transformed itself from a populist into a cultural nationalism becoming politically radicalised at the same time The nationalist symbol of the oxwagon was used not only by the National Party but also by the extra and antiparliamentarian mass movement Ossewabrandwag which was founded in 1939 Drawing on a broad range of archival resources the social history of this extremist organisation is analysed showing local and regional differences The Ossewabrandwag as a nationalist movement counted a considerable part of the Afrikaans white population among its members Therefore the Ossewabrandwag can be understood appropriately only in the context of radical Afrikaner nationalism Given that the potential for political radicalisation in the white South African population was considerable ideological influences from overseas played merely an additional role The book looks into the reasons for the mass participation in the Ossewabrandwag In addition it analyses the organisation's fight with the National Party and its illegal and treasonable activities In this context the book discusses which ideological influences on the apartheid policy can be identified as coming from organised right wing extremism The Cambridge Companion to the African Novel F. Abiola Irele, 2009-07-23 Africa's strong tradition of storytelling has long been an expression of an oral narrative culture African writers such as Amos Tutuola Naguib Mahfouz Wole Soyinka and J M Coetzee have adapted these older forms to develop and enhance the genre of the novel in a shift from the oral mode to print Comprehensive in scope these new essays cover the fiction in the European languages from North Africa and Africa south of the Sahara as well as in Arabic They highlight the themes and styles of the
