

Diamond Nine Activity Teacher Guide

Diamond Nine activities are a great way for children to learn about the importance this game of different activities, resources and more.

Children are given two different scenarios and asked to place them in order of importance. The most important goes in the top of the diamond the least important at the bottom. The child answers go down the top of the diamond according to the child's view of each.

Support the children that they should not be worried about being wrong, writing something down means it's their words and they can't be changed later.

Encourage the children to understand that there is no right or wrong answer and the people answering are the ones affected.

The final step will be to discuss to share their ideas with the rest of the class. The children need to give answers independently.

1. Place the _____ in the most important diamond.

2. Place _____ in the least important diamond.

3. Place the things that you think are most important in the _____ and _____ the least.

Diamond Nine Social Values

What values do you think are the most important for a society to have?

Read the nine values below and think about how important each one is to you. Then, cut them out and experiment putting them in order of importance on the 'Diamond Nine' template. Put the most important in the top space and the least important in the bottom space. Order the other values so that the ones most important to you are closer to the top.

tolerance	strong sense of justice	inclusion
fairness	pursuit of wealth	caring for the poor
caring for the environment	patience	valuing collaboration with other countries
