Mynors Bright,2018-08-07 Diary of Samuel Pepys Complete 1664 N S by Mynors Bright January 1st Went to bed between 4 and 5 in the morning with my mind in good temper of satisfaction and slept till about 8 that many people came to speak with me Among others one came with the best New Year s gift that ever I had namely from Mr Deering with a bill of exchange drawn upon himself for the payment of L50 to Mr Luellin It being for my use with a letter of compliment I am not resolved what or how to do in this business but I conclude it is an extraordinary good new year s gift though I do not take the whole or if I do then give some of it to Luellin By and by comes Captain Allen and his son Jowles and his wife who continues pretty still They would have had me set my hand to a certificate for his loyalty and I know not what his ability for any employment But I did not think it fit but did give them a pleasing denial and after sitting with me an hour they went away Several others came to me about business and then being to dine at my uncle Wight s I went to the Coffee house sending my wife by Will and there staid talking an hour with Coll Middleton and others and among other things about a very rich widow young and handsome of one Sir Nicholas Gold s a merchant lately fallen and of great courtiers that already look after her her husband not dead a week yet She is reckoned worth L80 000 Thence to my uncle Wight s where Dr of among others dined and his wife a seeming proud conceited woman I know not what to make of her but the Dr s discourse did please me very well about the disease of the stone above all things extolling Turpentine which he told me how it may be taken in pills with great ease There was brought to table a hot pie made of a swan I sent them yesterday given me by Mr We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience

The Diary of

Samuel Pepys, 1664 Samuel Pepys,2006-05 Pepys diary complete for the year 1664

The Diary of Samuel Pepys, Vol.

5 Samuel Pepys,1970 Samuel Pepys is as much a paragon of literature as Chaucer and Shakespeare His Diary is one of the principal sources for many aspects of the history of its period In spite of its significance all previous editions were inadequately edited and suffered from a number of omissions until Robert Latham and William Matthews went back to the 300 year old original manuscript and deciphered each passage and phrase no matter how obscure or indiscreet The Diary deals with some of the most dramatic events in English history Pepys witnessed the London Fire the Great Plague the Restoration of Charles II and the Dutch Wars He was a patron of the arts having himself composed many delightful songs and participated in the artistic life of London His flair for gossip and detail reveals a portrait of the times that rivals the most swashbuckling and romantic historical novels In none of the earlier versions was there a reliable full text with commentary and notation with any claim to completeness This edition first published in 1970 is the first in which the entire diary is printed with systematic comment This is the only complete edition available it is as close to Pepys s original as possible
