Governance and Security in Nigeria's Fourth Republic V. Adefemi Isumonah, Nathaniel Umukoro, 2025-10-30 This book explores the link between the nature of governance and various dimensions of security in Nigeria since the beginning of the fourth republic in 1999 The book begins by laying out the expectations of governance following the restoration of democratic rule Failure to meet these expectations of governance over the subsequent 25 years has led to resistance to authority structures and privileged groups who in turn in their effort at defending their positions employ coercion that has endangered the security of Nigeria This book is different from some previously published books in the field because it engages Nigeria's security challenges in their abstract and concrete forms and connects governance indicators with security or insecurity taking a cue from key themes in state society and intergroup relations This book juxtaposes different governance indicators against various dimensions of security including physical economic food and so on in order to assess whether there is a correlation between the quality of governance in Nigeria and the country's diverse security challenges At a time of increasing conflict in Nigeria this book's analysis will be valuable for researchers across Political Science History Security Studies Law and African Studies

The Microfoundations of

Diaspora Politics Alexandra Délano Alonso, Harris Mylonas, 2021-09-21 The Microfoundations of Diaspora Politics examines the various actors within and beyond the state that participate in the design and implementation of diaspora policies as well as the mechanisms through which diasporas are constructed by governments political parties diaspora entrepreneurs or international organisations Extant theories are often hard pressed to capture the empirical variation and often end up identifying exceptions The multidisciplinary group of contributors in this book theorise these exceptions through three interrelated conceptual moves first by focusing on understudied aspects of the relationships between states as well as organised non state actors and their citizens or co ethnics abroad or at home in cases of return migration Second by examining dyads of origin states and specific diasporic communities differentiated by time of emigration place of residence socio economic status migratory status generation or skills Third by considering migration in its multiple spatial and temporal phases emigration immigration transit return and how they intersect to constitute diasporic identities and policies These conceptual moves facilitate comparative research and help scholars identify the mechanisms connecting structural variables with specific policies by states and other actors as well as responses by the relevant diasporic communities This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies

Human Geopolitics Alan John Gamlen, 2019 This volume charts the rapid rise of various forms of diaspora institutions across distinct historical phases and geographical regions explaining the way that evolving models and best practices of international migration management have increasingly changed the way states see their diasporas and reconfigured the rules of international politics
