Dictionary of Islamic Philosophical Terms, The

Dictionary of Islamic Philosophical Terms provides definitions for terms related to Muslim philosophical works. The dictionary does not include Arabic names or Arabic and Sufi terminology. Arabized names of philosophers and scientists of Greek, Roman, and Byzantine origin are included in the dictionary. This dictionary is based on Dictionary of Muslim Philosophy written by M. Saeed Sheikh and published in 1970 by the Institute of Islamic Culture. Books of Definition in Islamic Philosophy Kiki Kennedy-Day, 2003-09-02. Islamic Philosophy has unusual origins. Originally a hybrid of Greek philosophy and early Islamic theology, its technical language consisted of a number of words translated from the Greek. This book studies how Islamic philosophers of the ninth century AD, such as al-Kindi, al-Farabi, and Ibn Sina, developed an indigenous set of terms and concepts. Their Books of Definition influenced the revision of the Arabic language to incorporate these new fields of knowledge. Books of Definition in Islamic Philosophy: The Limits of Words uses the work of these philosophers as a basis from which a comparison with their Greek precedents is enabled. The book presents a framework for incorporating an Islamic and historically contextualised philosophy into a continuum of world philosophers. At the core of this framework is Ibn Sina's Kitab al-hudud, which the author has translated into English and situates it in its correct geopolitical framework. In establishing a historical and literary context for the writing and circulation of Ibn Sina's definitions, the book breaks new ground in the integration of Islamic philosophy within a general history of philosophies. This fascinating and comprehensive study will be of interest to scholars and postgraduate students of Islamic Philosophy. Encyclopedias about Muslim Civilisations Aptin Khanbaghi, 2019-07-31. Encyclopedias about Muslim Civilisations Edited by Aptin Khanbaghi.

Philosophy Hans E. Bynagle, 2006-05-30. A newly reorganized up-to-date overview of key reference works in philosophy reflects a veritable explosion of reference sources, both print and online, published over the past decade. Nearly 300 of the 700 entries consist of new material, with an additional 50 entries substantially revised and updated. English language sources are emphasized, but important non-English works are also well represented. For professional philosophers, philosophy educators, students from beginning to graduate, and librarians, this guide represents a substantial updating and complete reorganization of the author's 1997 Philosophy: A Guide to the Reference Literature, 2nd edition (1st edition 1986). It reflects a veritable explosion of reference sources, both print and online, in the field of philosophy over the past decade. Nearly 300 entries, or 40 percent, are entirely new. An additional 50 or so entries have substantial revisions, recording new editions, changes in serial publications, series, and websites, or additional volumes completed in multi-volume sets. In addition, it has been entirely reorganized along topical lines. Each of its twenty-three chapters is divided into four sections: 1. general sources, 2. history of philosophy, 3. branches of philosophy, and 4. miscellanea. This new arrangement accords better with the greatly expanded range of philosophy reference sources and makes it easier for the user to identify related sources of different types bibliographies dictionaries web gateways etc on the same topic Like its predecessor Guide to Reference Sources in Philosophy the 3rd edition aims to serve a diverse audience of professional philosophers philosophy educators students from beginning to graduate and librarians All entries include generous annotations that are often evaluative as well as descriptive English language sources are emphasized but non English works important to researchers or of interest to users with facility in other languages are also well represented
