Die Blou Van Onthou The Blue Remembered:

Daniel – a South African Chronicle Daniel van der Merwe, 2015-02-17 Despite being written mainly in the third person this book enables the perceptive reader to study a dramatic part of South Africa's history through the experiences of the main protagonist. Because of his legal background Daniel is able to see how an initially fair legal system is corrupted in order to serve the increasingly desperate needs of the White minority. This is a mere backdrop however to a love story that grows closer to tragedy as time passes because the heroine is an alcoholic. The arrival of the computer alters the career of the hero dramatically and sends him on some overseas adventures to learn more about the legal implications of the new machine. As a leader of a missionary team to Malawi Daniel also gets to grips with people with a totally different background and a differing worldview. The book is sensitive to background and atmosphere and the hero encapsulates some of this in a few poems that form part of the main text. Jealousy that green eyed monster also rears its head occasionally and further complicates relationships.

Afrikaans Art Song Literature Christian Bester, Bronwen Forbay, 2025 For the first time Afrikaans Art Song Literature gathers together some of the most beloved Afrikaans art songs with translations and pronunciation guides to make them accessible to non native speakers outside South Africa. Each song includes original International Phonetic Alphabet transcriptions and word for word translations in English to enable musicians to teach and perform this little known repertoire. The authors also provide a brief history of Afrikaans Art Song literature, information on poets and composers and explanations about the unique geography, culture, landscapes and peoples of South Africa.

Brush Up Your Afrikaans Jan Nieuwoudt Tromp, 1941 Storyscapes Hein Viljoen, C. N. Van der Merwe, 2004 In Storyscapes we listen carefully to what South African writers reveal about themselves and their relations to South African space since the democratic transition of 1994. One main focus is the power of stories to uncover contradictory processes and investments of identity and to point readers toward a more meaningful life. Another main focus is the complexities of the post colonial understanding of South African land, landscape and space. Space in relation to race, class and gender identity figures prominently in analyses and comparisons of diverse South African texts such as Breyten Breytenbach's Dog Heart, Andr Brink's Imaginations of Sand as well as the important South African subgenre of the farm novel. Questions of black or hybrid identity are highlighted by confronting older texts with new ones by black and women writers such as A. H. M. Scholtz and E. K. M. Dido. These texts and a number of Afrikaans texts that are less well known in the English speaking world are set in the wider frameworks of postcolonial criticism and global issues of cultural identity.
