Psychology and Mental Health Contemporary Arab-American Literature Carol Fadda-Conrey, 2014 The last couple of decades have witnessed a flourishing of Arab American literature across multiple genres Yet increased interest in this literature is ironically paralleled by a prevalent bias against Arabs and Muslims that portrays their long presence in the US as a recent and unwelcome phenomenon Spanning the 1990s to the present Carol Fadda Conrey takes in the sweep of literary and cultural texts by Arab American writers in order to understand the ways in which their depictions of Arab homelands whether actual or imagined play a crucial role in shaping cultural articulations of US citizenship and belonging By asserting themselves within a US framework while maintaining connections to their homelands Arab Americans contest the blanket representations of themselves as dictated by the US nation state Deploying a multidisciplinary framework at the intersection of Middle Eastern studies US ethnic studies and diaspora studies Fadda Conrey argues for a transnational discourse that overturns the often rigid affiliations embedded in ethnic labels Tracing the shifts in transnational perspectives from the founders of Arab American literature like Gibran Kahlil Gibran and Ameen Rihani to modern writers such as Naomi Shihab Nye Joseph Geha Randa Jarrar and Suheir Hammad Fadda Conrey finds that contemporary Arab American writers depict strong yet complex attachments to the US landscape She explores how the idea of home is negotiated between immigrant parents and subsequent generations alongside analyses of texts that work toward fostering more nuanced understandings of Arab and Muslim identities in the wake of post 9 11 anti Arab sentiments Arab American Children with Disabilities Jamal M. Al Khatib, 2016-07-22 Despite a proliferation of special education literature on racial minorities over the past three decades research and writing on Arab American children with disabilities remain remarkably sparse This book fills that gap by promoting culturally appropriate services for Arab American children with disabilities Special education and service providers in the U S including school psychologists rehabilitation counselors and social workers are increasingly likely to work with Arab Americans with disabilities By focusing on this marginalized minority population Al Khatib provides much needed context and direction for service providers and researchers working with the Arab American community Offering an overview of special education and the rights guaranteed under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act IDEA this book also helps Arab American families understand the special education process and advocate for their children History of Arab Americans Aminah Al-Deen, 2018-11-02 This concise reference covers the diverse roots of Arabs in America tracing the changing face of this community from the 19th century until today From the restrictive immigration laws that the United States Congress passed against Arabs in the early 20th century to the backlash against this community following September 11 Arab Americans have faced both successes and challenges in their quest to become part of American culture This timely study explores the history of this multifaceted people from their traditions to their religious beliefs to the role women play in society their roots in war torn countries and the impact of the War on Terrorism on their collective psyche An easy to read narrative and chronologically arranged chapters reveal the enduring story of Arab American immigration and immersion

Topics include perceptions of Arab immigrants being Arab American in an age of terrorism framing an American identity and faith beliefs and community practices both Orthodox Christian and Muslim Throughout the work profiles of famous Arab Americans underscore the importance of this culture to our American identity featuring St Jude Children s Research Hospital founder Danny Thomas rapper Omar Offendum and others American Cinema in the Shadow of 9/11 Terence McSweeney,2016-12-05 American Cinema in the Shadow of 9 11 is a ground breaking collection of essays by some of the foremost scholars writing in the field of contemporary American film Through a dynamic critical analysis of the defining films of the turbulent post 9 11 decade the volume explores and interrogates the impact of 9 11 and the War on Terror on American cinema and culture In a vibrant discussion of films like American Sniper 2014 Zero Dark Thirty 2012 Spectre 2015 The Hateful Eight 2015 Lincoln 2012 The Mist 2007 Children of Men 2006 Edge of Tomorrow 2014 and Avengers Age of Ultron 2015 noted authors Geoff King Guy Westwell John Shelton Lawrence Ian Scott Andrew Schopp James Kendrick Sean Redmond Steffen Hantke and many others consider the power of popular film to function as a potent cultural artefact able to both reflect the defining fears and anxieties of the tumultuous era but also shape them in compelling and resonant ways

Scapegoating Islam Jeffrey L. Thomas,2015-09-15 Exploring the experience of Muslims in America following 9 11 this book assesses how anti Muslim bias within the U S government and the larger society undermines American security and democracy In the aftermath of the events of September 11 2001 Muslims in America have experienced discrimination and intolerance from the U S government and American citizens alike From religious and ethnic profiling to hate crimes intolerance against Muslims is being reinforced on multiple levels undercutting the Muslim community s engagement in American society This text is essential for understanding how the unjust treatment of American Muslims following September 11 has only served to alienate the Muslim community and further divide the United States Authored by an expert analyst of policy for 20 years this book explores the prejudice against Muslims and how the actions of the U S government continue to perpetuate fear and stereotypes within U S citizens The author posits that by respecting the civil rights of Muslims the government will lead by example in the acceptance of American Muslims improving homeland security along with the lives of Muslims living in the United States
