revolutionary projects of the sixties and seventies have given way to quite a different narrative vision and ideology. Dubbed the new sentimentalism, this trend is now keenly elucidated in Love and Politics in the Contemporary Spanish American Novel. Offering a rich account of the rise of this new mode as well as its political and cultural implications, Anibal González delivers a close reading of novels by Miguel Barnet, Elena Poniatowska, Isabel Allende, Alfredo Bryce Echenique, Gabriel García Márquez, Antonio Skarmeta, Luis Rafael Sánchez and others. González proposes that new sentimental novels are inspired principally by a desire to heal the division, rancor and fear produced by decades of social and political upheaval. Valuing pop culture above the avant-garde, such works also tend to celebrate agape (the love of one's neighbor) while denouncing the negative effects of passion and eros. Illuminating these and other aspects of post-Boom prose, Love and Politics in the Contemporary Spanish American Novel takes a fresh look at contemporary works.

Gabriel García Márquez and the Cinema Alessandro Rocco, 2014 This book focuses on Gabriel García Márquez's relations with the world of cinema. Far from being an occasional occupation, García Márquez's film work forms an intrinsic part of his overall aesthetic and literary poetics. The book's primary aim is to present a detailed study of García Márquez's wide-ranging filmography, which has never received a comprehensive systematic analysis. Rocco argues that it should be recognised as an integral part of the author's narrative output and brought into the mainstream of studies concerning his literary activity. The first part of the book reconstructs the trajectory of García Márquez's career in cinema and his connections with the world of film. The second part looks at all the screenplays written by García Márquez on which actual films have been based. These are examined chronologically but also analysed according to thematic and aesthetic concerns and placed in relation to the novels and short stories with which they are twinned in terms of the film product.

Doubles and Hybrids in Latin American Gothic Antonio Alcalá González, Ilse Marie Bussing López, 2019-09-25 Doubles and Hybrids in Latin American Gothic focuses on a recurrent motif that is fundamental in the Gothic: the double. This volume explores how this ancient notion acquires tremendous force in a region, Latin America, which is itself defined by duplicity: indigenous European autochthonous religions, Catholic. Despite this duplicity and at the same time because of it this region has also generated mestizaje or forms resulting from racial mixing and hybridity This collection then aims to contribute to the current discussion about the Gothic in Latin America by examining the doubles and hybrid forms that result from the violent yet culturally fertile process of colonization that took place in the area
