Delivering Policy Reform Anchoring Significant Reforms In Turbulent Times:

Delivering Policy Reform Evert A. Lindquist, Sam Vincent, John Wanna, 2011 Predictable and unpredictable challenges continually confront the policy settings and policy frameworks of governments They provide a constantly changing dynamic within which policy making operates Governments at all levels are asking their public services to identify innovative and workable reforms to anticipate and address these challenges Public service leaders around the world are struggling not only to better anticipate emerging demands but also to address reform backlogs However time and time again major policy reforms can prove tough to implement especially in turbulent environments and even tougher to anchor over time This leads to considerable uncertainty and inefficiency as governments and policy communities try to keep pace with change Policies that unravel or are dismantled are costly and represent wasted opportunities They lead to cynicism about the effectiveness of governments and public service advice more generally making it more difficult to deal with other emerging challenges This volume of proactive essays on delivering policy reform offers an intriguing blend of strategic policy advice and management insight It brings together a diverse range of highquality contributors from overseas as well as from Australia and New Zealand including national political leaders public service executives heads of independent agencies and leading international scholars

New Accountabilities, New Challenges John Wanna, Evert A. Lindquist, Penelope Marshall, 2015-04-08 This important and challenging volume of essays draws on insights from leading academics and public servants from Australia New Zealand the United Kingdom Canada and elsewhere It provides an excellent series of critiques of both the systemic accountabilities and the policy processes of government by drawing on meticulously researched topical and real world case studies of governance Its contribution to the understanding of the applied processes of government in this way is exemplary Topics covered include restoring trust in government parliamentary scrutiny of the APS administrative law and FOI budgetary reforms implementation issues competition policy indigenous administration collaboration with the NGO sector educational reforms and the changes to the Auditor General's mandate Reforms that Stick Joanna Luetjens, 2023-08-14 This incisive book examines how and why some major policy reforms endure while others fail to gain traction and embed themselves Tracing the development of key policy reforms over time it offers original insight into how to create and embed positive changes that continue to deliver over the long term Reforming Law Reform Michael Tilbury, Simon N.M. Young, Ludwig Ng, 2014-01-01 As a special administrative region of China Hong Kong has its own legal system rooted in the common law Reforms to this system take into account Hong Kong's unique conditions as an international city and draw widely on practices around the world Since 1980 recommendations from a Law Reform Commission chaired by the Secretary for Justice have resulted in comprehensive revisions in key areas of law ranging from commercial arbitration and interception of communications to divorce and copyright Recently however the government has been slow to act on the Commission's recommendations Questions have also arisen about whether the Commission under resourced part time and government led can really meet the needs of an increasingly sophisticated society Is law reform itself also in need of reform This collection of essays by distinguished experts from around the world seeks answers to the question The book explores the varied experience of law reform in Hong Kong and other common law jurisdictions and makes recommendations for strengthening the process of law reform both in Hong Kong and elsewhere Michael Tilbury is Kerry Holdings Professor in Private Law in the Faculty of Law the University of Hong Kong Simon N M Young is a professor in the Faculty of Law the University of Hong Kong and was formerly Director of the Centre for Comparative and Public Law Ludwig Ng is a partner in ONC Lawyers Hong Kong This important book should be a wake up call to lawmakers in Hong Kong and beyond on the urgent need for effective law reform It is especially important for Hong Kong whose competitive advantage is being harmed by institutional paralysis and official lethargy The editors' modest recommendations deserve urgent action by Hong Kong's governors to bring up to date its archaic and outmoded legislation Lord Lester of Herne Hill QC Law reform is essential especially in these fast changing times The law reform agency plays an important role in this process This work examines the experience of the agency in Hong Kong and elsewhere and discusses how its effectiveness can be enhanced This valuable contribution deserves to be read The Hon Andrew Li Chief Justice of Hong Kong 1997-2010 This is probably the first collection in Hong Kong of writings on law reform examining clinically how law reform is and can be processed with reference to other law reform institutions in the pursuit of effectively meeting the often shifting needs of society and economy Important chapters on reform of different areas of law are also included in this book The editors and contributors are to be congratulated for masterminding such an admirable source of information and inspirational ideas Stephen Kai yin Wong Barrister Secretary of the Law Reform Commission of Hong Kong In this collection of essays the learned editors

Tilbury Young and Ng have drawn together an outstanding group of authors representing many years of experience in law reform across the common law world. From the UK, Canada, Australia and Hong Kong, the insights of the authors are both reflective and forward looking, providing a rich resource towards reforming law reform. Professor Rosalind Croucher, President Australian Law Reform Commission, Politics, Policy and Public Administration in Theory and Practice. Andrew Podger, Michael de Percy, Sam Vincent, 2021-06-15. This festschrift celebrates the extensive contribution John Wanna has made to the research and practice of politics, policy and public administration. It includes both personal acknowledgements of his work and substantial essays on the issues that he focused most closely upon during his academic career: budgeting and financial management, politics and public policy and administration. The essays address contemporary developments in public sector financial management in Australia and overseas, changing political processes in Queensland and the Commonwealth and public governance and administration reform trajectories in Australia and internationally, including in China. A common theme is the importance of linking research to practice, reflecting John Wanna's own style and contribution. Essays include exploration of the interface between academia and practice, including from the perspective of practitioners. The authors of the essays in this volume include eminent Australian and international scholars of public administration, experienced public service practitioners and younger scholars influenced by John Wanna. Government and Public Policy in the Pacific Islands. Graham Hassall, 2020-11-11. This book is a comparative study of government and public policy in the twenty small states of the Pacific Islands, examining the often tense societal interactions over competing conceptions of public sector institutions and authority, rule making and policy processes. U.S. Public Health Policy. Immanuel Azaad Moonesar, 2013-11-25. Summary: This publication examines health policy in the United States, which reflects authoritative decisions and the process of decision making carried out at the federal, state and local levels, which affect personal health and access to and delivery of health services. The publication provides an analysis of health policy making in the U.S., including how health policy proposals move through the policy process. It also assesses the key challenges with regards to addressing cost, access and quality issues in health care and an evaluation of the existing policies in these arenas. In addition, it contains an analysis of the diversity of perspectives held by policy makers, interest groups, healthcare professionals and other stakeholders regarding existing and proposed health policy, in addition to the identification of the ways in which health care professionals can participate in and influence health policy development. The author, Immanuel Azaad Moonesar, R.D.M.Q.M., NEBOSH Dip ICND B.Sc., is a researcher in Health Services and PhD Candidate, Walden University, DC, U.S.A. He is affiliated to the Mohammed Bin Rashid School of Government, Dubai, U.A.E. Contents: Introduction, the policy process and case scenarios, the policy and political environment and case scenarios, Access challenges and policies, health care reform to address access, access to insurance versus access to care, health access, care or insurance, Quality challenges and policies, government versus private options for quality, pros and cons of pay for performance, Cost challenges and policies, challenges in containing health care costs.

legislation on cost containment Disease and emergency related health policy Conclusion Australian Public Policy Chris Miller, Lionel Orchard, 2016-02-17 Australian public policy engages with the values and dilemmas of progressive public policy in Australia bringing together leading authors to explore a wide range of issues which challenge and extend current thinking about Australian public policy Transformational Change in Environmental and Natural Resource Management Mike Young, Christine Esau, 2016-10-04 The aim of this book is to catalyse global interest in the pursuit of transformational changes in natural resource and environmental management It is shown that transformational policy reforms involve fundamental shifts in strategy with far reaching consequences for the structure of industries the way people behave and the resources they use Transformational reforms typically involve a decision to change a suite of institutional arrangements that will result within a short period of time in a paradigm shift and the emergence of an approach that will be recognised as being totally different to the arrangements that were previously in place Transformational change is well established in business and can deliver outstanding results In the world of policy development however many transformational policy reforms flounder Unlike incremental policy reforms they are often seen to be politically risky and prone to failure Using examples of success and failure coupled with insights from practitioners and academics who have succeeded in getting transformational reforms implemented this book presents a set of guidelines for excellence in the pursuit of transformational policy reforms It includes detailed case studies from Australia China Europe New Zealand South east Asia and the USA
