Zimmermann, José Coelho Rodrigues, Ana Simoes, Gustavo Dalmarco, 2025-03-26 This proceedings volume contains selected papers from the 33rd International Association for Management of Technology IAMOT Conference held from July 8-11 2024 in Porto Portugal. It is the second volume of a three-volume set of conference proceedings focused on technologies for a sustainable future. The book explores the challenges and opportunities in today's social and business landscapes delving into innovative and disruptive concepts. With a special emphasis on the role of technologies, it sheds light on how they enable novel approaches to address current issues. The volume demonstrates that following the principles of Industry 5.0, technologies can go far beyond productivity and economic gains, contributing to the benefit and comfort of human workers. It also elucidates the necessity of adopting a human-centered approach in utilizing technology to adapt production processes to workers' needs while ensuring that the implementation of new technologies does not infringe upon the fundamental rights of workers.

Deploying Foresight for Policy and Strategy Makers Leonid Gokhberg, Dirk Meissner, Alexander Sokolov, 2016-04-23. This book develops foresight techniques to turn future societal challenges into opportunities. The authors present foresight approaches for innovation policy and management. Future developments in fields such as education, energy, new materials, nanotechnologies are highlighted for different countries. This book is a valuable resource for researchers and scholars with an interest in foresight methods and gives practical hints for policy makers and managers to take account of the grand opportunities in their business and policy strategies.

Entrepreneurship, Technology Commercialisation, and Innovation Policy in Africa Chux Daniels, Mafini Dosso, Joe Amadi-Echendu, 2021-01-04. This book provides a comprehensive overview of the role of entrepreneurship, technology commercialisation, and innovation policy for the achievement of economic development and prosperity in African societies. It adopts a broad innovation systems approach. The book examines entrepreneurship, innovation, and technology commercialisation alongside context-specific factors associated with them. It also provides an interdisciplinary perspective by discussing the above disciplines in a connected way. This book is presented in three distinct parts. It starts by discussing entrepreneurship and the state of the entrepreneurial ecosystem in Africa. It then moves on to present technology commercialisation in Africa before finally discussing the future directions for entrepreneurship, technology commercialisation, and innovation policy. This broad picture provided in the book enables the reader to grasp the relevant messages whilst the detailed analysis applies world-class theories and frameworks to deepen the reader's understanding of key concepts and issues examined.
