The Archives of the Dutch East India Company (VOC) and the Local Institutions in Batavia (Jakarta) Louisa Balk, Frans Van Dijk, Diederick Kortlang, Femme Gaastra, Hendrik Niemeijer, Pieter Koenders, 2007-10-31 The VOC Verenigde Oostindische Compagnie the Dutch East India Company was the largest of the early modern European trading companies operating in Asia Its operations produced not only warehouses packed with spices coffee tea textiles porcelain and silk but also shiploads of documents Data on political economic cultural religious and social conditions spread over an enormous area circulated between the VOC establishments the administrative centre of the trade in Batavia now the city of Jakarta and the Board of Directors in the Netherlands The co operation between the National Archives of Indonesia and the Netherlands resulted in this extensive catalogue of fifteen archives of VOC institutions in Jakarta The VOC records are included in UNESCO s Memory of the World Register

Arsip-arsip Verenigde Oostindische Compagnie (VOC) Dan Lembaga-lembaga Pemerintahan Kota Batavia (Jakarta) D. Diederick J. Kortlang, 2007 The co operation between the Netherlands Nationaal Archief and the Arsip Nasional Republik Indonesia has resulted in this catalogue of fifteen archives of VOC Verenigde Oostindische Compagnie institutions in Jakarta The VOC records are included in UNESCOs Memory of the World Register

Commanders of Dutch East India Ships in the Eighteenth Century J. R. Bruijn, 2011 Provides a detailed picture of the lives of the commanders and those around them both at home and at sea An original and evocative window onto the lives of men who bridged the two worlds of eighteenth century Europe and the Far East Professor Nicholas Rodger This book represents a major contribution to our knowledge and understanding of the East Indian maritime world of the European trading companies The Dutch East India Company which ruled large and important parts of what is now Indonesia and which controlled the highly lucrative trade from the Dutch East Indies to Europe much of it a monopoly trade in pepper and other spices was in this period larger and better established than its British counterpart The book reconstructs and explores the careers of the highly important and influential commanders of the Dutch East Indiamen the ships which plied the trade routes between the East Indies and the Netherlands It covers the company s system of examinations how mates and masters acquired their navigational knowledge how they lived their lives at sea and on land and how making use of the enormous opportunities for private trade they were able to make substantial fortunes and climb the social ladder The book contains a wealth of material on the social history of the commanders and those around them both at home and at sea JAAP R BRUIJN is Professor Emeritus of Maritime History at Leiden University He is one of the leading maritime historians in the Netherlands

In the Shadow of the Company: The Dutch East India Company and its Servants in the Period of its Decline (1740-1796) Chris Nierstrasz, 2012-08-27 Is there any truth in the story that the morality of the servants of the Dutch East India Company in the eighteenth century was so rotten that one should believe the Dutch maxim Vergaan Onder

Corruptie in translation something like Succumbed to Corruption and use this as an explanation for a very complex phenomenon Chris Nierstrasz introduces us in his In the Shadow of the Company to the realities of the decision makers and of the servants in the field Responding to the changing realities in Asia the Company could only try to use the mercantile potential of its higher echelons to postpone its downfall In a situation in which the directors were not able to increase investment from Holland the servants in Asia were forced to take up the challenge VOC John Landwehr,2024-06-03 At the height of its power and influence in the seventeenth and eighteenth century the VOC acronym for the United Netherland East India Company was the greatest commercial concern in the world The scope of its activities extended from the Cape of Good Hope to Japan In some aspects the Baltic trade and the North Sea fisheries were of more fundamental relevance for the economy of the Lowlands But it was the more spectacular East Indian trade which aroused the admiration and the envy of foreigners sometimes to the point of war In this bibliography several topics are covered Not only technical matters such as the legal status of the VOC its management directors and shareholders but also subjects as voyages battles ship building navigation geography natural history ethnography mission work ministration and many others With 1674 entries fully described and fully indexed Working on Labor Marcel M. van der Linden,Leo Lucassen,2012-08-09 Using comparative and long term perspectives the seventeen essays in this collection discuss the development of labor relations and labor migrations in Europe Asia and the US from the thirteenth century to the present Genesis and Nemesis of the First Dutch Colonial Empire in Asia and South Africa, 1596-1811 Gerrit Knaap,2022-12-28 Based upon a sweeping command of Dutch East India Company VOC primary sources Knaap s manuscript offers a thought provoking thematic examination and chronological survey of the Dutch Republic s overseas and colonial expansion in Asia and South Africa mainly through the VOC and its successors the Batavian Republic the Kingdom of Holland and Franco Dutch Java over a period of more than two centuries 1596 1811 It elucidates and deals with several conceptual and theoretical issues that are intrinsically important and germane to a polity s definition of and how it chooses to execute the process of expansion overseas in the early modern period One of this work s major arguments and contributions is its advocacy that the Dutch VOC s expansion in Asia was an imperial project and must be seen as an act of empire or at the very minimum the attempt to construct one via the innovative utilization of a highly organized and dynamic commercial institution with significant political and diplomatic power and naval and military resources Vermeer's Hat Timothy Brook,2010-08-01 In this critical darling Vermeer s captivating and enigmatic paintings become windows that reveal how daily life and thought from Delft to Beijing were transformed in the 17th century when the world first became global A Vermeer painting shows a military officer in a Dutch sitting room talking to a laughing girl In another canvas fruit spills from a blue and white porcelain bowl Familiar images that captivate us with their beauty but as Timothy Brook shows us these intimate pictures actually give us a remarkable view of an expanding world The officer s dashing hat is made of beaver fur from North America and it was beaver pelts from America that financed the voyages of explorers seeking routes to China prized for the porcelains so often shown in Dutch paintings of this time including Vermeer's In this dazzling history Timothy Brook uses Vermeer's works and other contemporary images from Europe Asia and the Americas to trace the rapidly growing web of global trade and the explosive transforming and sometimes destructive changes it wrought in the age when globalization really began Beschryvinge der stad Delft, D.E. van Bleyswijck, 1667
