Consuming Technologies Media And Information In Domestic Spaces:

Consuming Technologies Roger Silverstone, Eric Hirsch, 1992 Consuming Technologies opens for analysis some crucial but rarely examined areas of social cultural and economic life At its core is a concern with the complex set of relationships that mark and define the place of the domestic in the modern world and an explanation of the relationship between the domestic and public spheres as they are mediated by consumption and technology Consuming Technologies Media and Information in Domestic Spaces Eric Hirsch, Roger Silverstone, 1992 Consuming Technologies Media and Information in Domestic Spaces Eric Hirsch, Roger Silverstone, 1992 Domestication Of Media And Technology Berker, Thomas, Hartmann, Maren, Punie, Yves, 2005-11-01 This book provides an overview of a key concept in media and technology studies domestication Theories around domestication shed light upon the process in which a technology changes its status from outrageous novelty to an aspect of everyday life which is taken for granted The contributors collect past current and future applications of the concept of domestication critically reflect on its theoretical legacy and offer comments about further development The first part of Domestication of Media and Technology provides an overview of the conceptual development and theory of domestication In the second part of the book contributors look at a diverse range of empirical studies that use the domestication approach to examine the dynamics between users and technologies These studies include Mobile information and communications technologies ICTs and the transformation of the relationship between private and the public spheres Home based internet use the two way dynamic between the household and its social environment Disadvantaged women in Europe undertaking introductory internet courses Urban middle class families in China who embrace ICTs and view them as instruments of upward mobility and symbols of success The book offers valuable insights for both experienced researchers and students looking for an introduction to the concept of domestication Contributors Maria Bakardjieva University of Calgary Thomas Berker Norwegian University of Science and Technology Leslie Haddon Essex University Maren Hartmann University of Erfurt Deirdre Hynes Dublin City University Sun Sun Lim National University of Singapore Anna Maria Russo Lemor University of Colorado at Boulder David Morley Goldsmiths College University of London Jo Pierson TNO STB Delft Netherlands Yves Punie Institute for Prospective Technological Studies IPTS in Seville Els Rommes Nijmegen University Roger Silverstone London School of Economics and Political Science Knut H S rensen Norwegian University of Science and Technology Katie J Ward University of Sheffield The Domestic Space Reader Chiara Briganti, Kathy Mezei, 2012-11-23 Tune in to HGTV visit your local bookstore s magazine section or flip to the Homes section of your weekend newspaper and it becomes clear domestic spaces play an immense role in our cultural consciousness The Domestic Space Reader addresses our collective fascination with houses and homes by providing the first comprehensive survey of the concept across time cultures and disciplines This pioneering anthology which is ideal for students and general readers features writing by key scholars thinkers and writers including Gaston Bachelard Mary Douglas Le Corbusier Homi

Bhabha Henri Lefebvre Mrs Beeton Ma Thanegi Diana Fuss Beatriz Colomina and Edith Wharton Among the many engaging topics explored are the impact of domestic technologies on family life the relationship between religion and the home nomadic peoples and housing domestic spaces in art and literature and the history of the bedroom the kitchen and the bathroom The Domestic Space Reader demonstrates how discussions of domestic spaces can help us better understand our inner lives and challenge our perceptions of life in particular times and places Domestic Space Janet Floyd, Inga Bryden, 1999 This volume takes forward the debate about 19th century domestic space drawing on economic history and literary criticism To date studies of 19th century domestic space have discussed a feminized middle class sphere often using domestic guides and fictional representations of domesticity to generate their arguments The SAGE Handbook of Human-Machine Communication Andrea L. Guzman, Rhonda McEwen, Steve Jones, 2023-06-01 The SAGE Handbook of Human Machine Communication has been designed to serve as the touchstone text for researchers and scholars engaging in new research in this fast developing field Chapters provide a comprehensive grounding of the history methods debates and theories that contribute to the study of human machine communication Further to this the Handbook provides a point of departure for theorizing interactions between people and technologies that are functioning in the role of communicators and for considering the theoretical and methodological implications of machines performing traditionally human roles This makes the Handbook the first of its kind and a valuable resource for students and scholars across areas such as communication media and information studies and computer science as well as for practitioners engineers and researchers interested in the foundational elements of this emerging field Part 1 Histories and Trajectories Part 2 Approaches and Methods Part 3 Concepts and Contexts Part 4 Technologies and Applications Disconnecting with Social Networking Sites B. Light, 2014-09-26 Ben Light puts forward an alternative way of thinking about how we engage with social networking sites He analyses our engagements social networking sites in public at work in our personal lives and as related to our health and wellbeing emphasizing the importance of disconnection instead of connection The Platformization of the Family Julian Sefton-Green, Kate Mannell, Ola Erstad, 2024-11-28 This open access book outlines how the digital platforms that mediate so many aspects of commercial and personal life have begun to transform everyday family existence It presents theory and research methods to enable students and scholars to investigate the changes that platformization has brought to the routines and interactions of family life including intergenerational communication interpersonal relationships forms of care and togetherness The book emerged from a seminar jointly funded by the Collaboration of Humanities and Social Sciences in Europe project the Norwegian Research Council and The Australian Centre of Excellence for the Study of the Digital Child Digital Diversions Julian Sefton-Green, 2004-01-14 This work explores the diverse ways in which young people are active social agents in the production of youth culture in the digital age It collects an international range of empirical accounts describing the ways in which young people utilize and appropriate new technology The contributors draw on a range of
