between the Buddha's and Jesus teachings before offering both Buddhist and Christian interpretations. An appendix presents the Buddhist imitation of Jesus' words as a continuous text. Dr. Falvey introduces his work, 'Jesus speaking the Buddha's words', exuding audacity and ignorance yet this work essentially wrote itself as a product of my socialization, a modicum of Christian theological study and its explication through three decades of casual association with Thai Buddhism. Differences between the two traditions, such as Christianity relying on a God while Buddhism denies the existence of a God, proved themselves facile upon consideration of the metaphorical intent of teachings of both traditions.
