Jordaan, József Zsengellér, 2020-04-08 This volume examines Jewish literature produced from c 700 B C E to c 200 C E from a socio theological perspective In this context it offers a scholarly attempt to understand how the ancient Jewish psyche dealt with times of extreme turmoil and how Jewish theology altered to meet the challenges experienced The volume explores various early Jewish literature including both the canonical and apocryphal scripture Here reference is often made to a divine epiphany a moment of unexpected and prodigious revelation or insight as a response to abuse suffering and passion Many of the chapters deal with these issues in relation to the Antiochan crisis of 169 to 164 B C E in Judea one of the more notable periods of oppression This watershed event appears to have served as a catalyst for the new apocalyptic texts which were produced up until c 200 C E and which reflect a new theological dynamic in Judaism one that informed subsequent Christianity and Rabbinic Judaism Passion Persecution and Epiphany in Early Jewish Literature will be of interest to anyone working on the Bible both Masoretic and LXX and early Jewish literature as well as students of Jewish history and the Levant in the classical period Report United States. Equality and Non-Discrimination under the European Convention on Human Rights Oddný Mjöll Arnadóttir, 2021-10-18 The case law of the European Court of Human Rights on discrimination under the Convention is typically considered to be unclear and conflicting Against that background new possibilities for more effective protection against discrimination are opening up through recent developments in the case law on Article 14 and with the advent of the new Protocol 12 to the Convention This study demonstrates that the objective and reasonable justification test and conventional treatment of non discrimination are not apt for dealing with these emerging new possibilities or for explaining the variations in existing case law It therefore suggests a new approach to dealing with protection against discrimination under the Convention developed by focusing on variations in the strictness of objective justification review This study proposes a more viable framework for understanding discrimination analysis under the Convention which includes an alternative interpretation of the burden of proof under Article 14 and a three tiered model of factors that influences the strictness of review

A History of the Quests for the Historical Jesus, Volume 1 Colin Brown, Craig A. Evans, 2022-11-08 A comprehensive two volume reassessment of the quests for the historical Jesus that details their origins and underlying presuppositions as well as their ongoing influence on today's biblical and theological scholarship Jesus' life and teaching is important to every question we ask about what we believe and why we believe it And yet there has never been common agreement about his identity intentions or teachings even among first century historians and scholars Throughout history different religious and philosophical traditions have attempted to claim Jesus and paint him in the cultural narratives of their heritage creating a labyrinth of conflicting ideas From the evolution of orthodoxy and quests before Albert Schweitzer's famous Old Quest to today's ongoing questions about criteria methods and sources A History of the Quests for the Historical Jesus not only chronicles the developments but lays the groundwork for the way forward The late Colin Brown brings his scholarly prowess in both theology and biblical studies to bear on the subject assessing not only the historical and exegetical nuts and bolts of the debate about Jesus of Nazareth but also its philosophical sociological and theological underpinnings Instead of seeking a bedrock of facts Brown stresses the role of hermeneutics in formulating questions and seeking answers Colin Brown was almost finished with the manuscript at the time of his passing in 2019 Brought to its final form by Craig A. Evans this book promises to become the definitive history and assessment of the quests
