Horning, Elizabeth W. Kraemer, 2013-09-06 Reconnecting Reading and Writing explores the ways in which reading can and should have a strong role in the teaching of writing in college Reconnecting Reading and Writing draws on broad perspectives from history and international work to show how and why reading should be reunited with writing in college and high school classrooms It presents an overview of relevant research on reading and how it can best be used to support and enhance writing instruction Environmental Justice, 1996 Rhetorical Crossover Cedric Burrows, 2020-10-27 In music crossover means that a song has moved beyond its original genre and audience into the general social consciousness Rhetorical Crossover uses the same concept to theorize how the black rhetorical presence has moved in mainstream spaces in an era where African Americans were becoming more visible in white culture Cedric Burrows argues that when black rhetoric moves into the dominant culture white audiences appear welcoming to African Americans as long as they present an acceptable form of blackness for white tastes The predominant culture has always constructed coded narratives on how the black rhetorical presence should appear and behave when in majority spaces In response African Americans developed their own narratives that revise and reinvent mainstream narratives while also reaffirming their humanity Using an interdisciplinary model built from music education film and social movement studies Rhetorical Crossover details the dueling narratives about African Americans that percolate throughout the United States Environmental Justice Non-Stockpile Chemical Materiel Program (U.S.), 1996 Debate and Critical Analysis Robert James Branham, 2013-10-16 Rather than approach debate primarily as a form of interscholastic competition this unique book identifies it as an activity that occurs in many settings scientific conferences newspaper op ed pages classrooms courts of law
