Cutting Through Fear:

Laoshi: Tai Chi, Teachers, and Pursuit of Principle Jan Kauskas, 2014-05-01 The book is a kind of semifictional memoir. Chapters reflect the author's own experiences gained in the pursuit of tai chi and other martial arts. The text flows as a novel but with substance based solidly in reality applicable to anyone tai chi practitioner or not since the main theme is the pursuit of principle in everyday life. Book Description A tai chi student explores the Dao of Zheng Manqing with the aid of his teacher Laoshi. Through personal accounts, reflection and dialogue with Laoshi we witness the novice's evolution in his search for the spirit of the art and the resulting bond forged with his instructor. Together student and teacher examine the philosophical and martial aspects of tai chi. They demonstrate what it means to pursue principle and they see the ease with which it can be lost to that trickster and provocateur the ego. Engaging, sincere and at times lighthearted, this fictional memoir narrated from the student's perspective addresses themes familiar to all who study tai chi and the martial arts. Laoshi is a journey into tai chi and a meditation on life and living without fear.

A Path Through the Kitchen Una McNoon, 2013-06-04 This is the story of an encounter that awaits us all if we choose to look in our hearts. In A Path through the Kitchen Una McNoon shares the joys and tribulations of her journey using twelve appetizing songs and twelve harmonious recipes put together to make an unusually meaningful book. Second prize winner for best illustrated cookbook in the Gourmand Cookbook Fair in Paris 2010.

Straight from the Heart Jamgon Mipham, 2014-04-22 Straight from the Heart brings together an inspiring collection of Buddhist teachings, songs of realization, meditation instructions and enlightened poetry, all chosen for their power to speak directly to the student. Drawn from Indian Mahayana and Vajrayana Buddhism as well as from all four schools of Tibetan Buddhism, some will impress with their beautiful poetry and powerful imagery, others with their profound power of instruction. Still others share personal advice for life that seems to come directly from the mouth of the author and some serve as immediate and profound practice instructions. Several are just delightfully unconventional, even outrageous, letting in fresh air on petrified views or musty traditions. Most of them are simply unknown precious gems which deserve a wider audience. Each of the works is preceded by a brief introduction and a short biography of its author. Many of these are legendary accounts of supernatural feats, edifying examples for students on the same spiritual path, meant to expand their limited outlook with mind-blowing stories, miraculous deeds, magnificent songs and pithy instructions. This collection, assembled by the Buddhist scholar and translator Karl Brunnhölzl, whose years of work among dharma texts and his skill as a translator yield a rich mine of teachings, all chosen for their ability to speak directly to the heart.

1936 to respond to inquirers who had come to him morally and spiritually defeated They were inwardly beaten thus outwardly ineffective The book responds with individual and social emphases and goes step by step as if on a ladder to work through the pressing questions of the inner life and how it extends outward How do we achieve a life evidencing the peace that passes understanding even in ourselves let alone passing it on What makes the difference between ordinary living and extraordinary victorious living How can we build a new inner strength that shines through in our outward character and relationships Our own efforts to rise above are ineffective but by applying the power of God s Word we can close the gap between our reality and our beliefs Each daily reading offers essential truths and eternal principles keys to victorious living in the circumstances we encounter every day Now this vibrant work is making a long deserved comeback with a new foreword by Leonard Sweet
