

an Code of Conduct Policy

A code of conduct policy helps the business between employees and management when it comes to the business process that includes management and overall organization. This sample Employee Code of Conduct/Company Policy template is ready to be tailored to your company's needs and should be considered during onboarding and your employment policies. An employee code of conduct policy may also be referred to as Standard for Workplace Policy.

This employee code of conduct policy should include:

1. Standards on workplace policies and overall behavior.
2. Standards for respect in the workplace environment of discriminatory behavior or harassment.
3. Policies for the protection and appropriate use of company property.

Employee Code of Conduct Policy Template

Policy Title & Purpose

This Employee Code of Conduct company policy outlines our expectations regarding employees' behavior towards their colleagues, supervisors and overall organization.

We ensure freedom of expression through communication. All our essential employees are encouraged to speak up and report. They should avoid situations pertaining to sexual harassment and abusive or unethical. We also emphasize to foster a well-organized, respectful and collaborative environment.

Scope

This policy applies to all our employees regardless of employment agreement or role.

Policy statements

What are the components of an Employee Code of Conduct Policy?

Company employees are bound by their contract to follow our Employee Code of Conduct while performing their duties. This means the components of our Code of Conduct become:

Compliance with Law
