Astrachan, 2019-11-29 Naming the Gods Cy Twombly's Passionate Poiesis concerns itself with the contemporary art work of Cy Twombly as seen against the deep background of classical Greek mythology In particular the two entwined figures and images of Orpheus lyre player lover and journeyer to the underworld and Dionysos Bacchus god of wine ecstasy and madness are taken up as the two principal thematic leitmotifs which animate and overarchingly inform Twombly's entire artistic oeuvre across all the mediums in which he worked both literally and symbolically from the early 1950's until the last series of brilliantly colored paintings he made just before his death in 2011 His preoccupations with the rhythms of language poetry and writing on the one hand and his tendencies towards wildly expressive gestural abstraction on the other ultimately combine in his creation of a genuinely new and original performative aesthetic which unites and connects the powerful impulses of mark making painting and assembling with the basic human needs for individuation realization and redemption In a long and rich tradition of sublime poiesis spanning ancient Greek tragedy through Romanticism the poets Friedrich Hölderlin and Rainer Maria Rilke and into our own fragmented and imperiled postmodernist times Twombly's artistic corpus is viewed as providing a radically renovative relationship and practice for honoring working with and valorizing both psyche and matter the inner and outer worlds as well as with delimiting a uniquely generative and seminal space for the further enactment of creative human doing making producing and being in reciprocal and intimate relationship with the otherness of things nature and the environment Gary D Astrachan Ph D is a clinical psychologist and Jungian psychoanalyst in private practice in Portland Maine He is a faculty member and supervising and training analyst at the C G Jung Institutes in Boston and in Switzerland and lectures and teaches widely throughout North America Latin America and Europe He is a founding member of the C G Jung Center of Brunswick Maine and is also an independent curator of contemporary art installations and exhibitions He is the author of numerous scholarly articles in professional journals and books and writes particularly on the relationship between analytical psychology and Greek mythology poetry painting film postmodernism and critical theory Cy Twombly Cy Twombly, 1992 A supplement to our 6 volume Cy Twombly Catalogue Raisonné of the Paintings edited by Heiner Bastian this final volume presents previously unrecorded and unpublished works approximately 80 paintings from Twombly's complete span of creative activity plus 35 unfinished works Cahiers du Musée national d'art moderne Musée national d'art moderne (France), 2016 Productive failure Alpesh Kantilal

Patel,2017-07-21 This title sets out to write new transnational South Asian art histories to make visible histories of artworks that remain marginalised within the discipline of art history However this is done through a deliberate productive failure specifically by not upholding the strictly genealogical approach that is regularly assumed for South Asian art histories For instance one chapter explores the abstract work of Cy Twombly and Natvar Bhavsar The author examines whiteness the invisible ground upon which racialized art histories often pivot as a fraught yet productive site for writing art history This book also provides original commentary on how queer theory can deconstruct and provide new approaches for writing art history Overall this title provides methods for generating art history that acknowledge the complex web of factors within which art history is produced and the different forms of knowledge production we might count as art history Cy

Twombly, the Ceiling Cy Twombly,2010 An immense blue sky speckled with floating spheres and inscribed with the names of illustrious Greek sculptors now decorates the ceiling of the Salle des bronzes Antiques the prestigious Great Hall situated in the oldest part of the palace Today over a thousand bronzes and nearly a hundred pieces of jewelry are housed in this room attesting to the splendour of the Greek Italic and Roman cultures that flourished from the ninth century BC to the sixth century AD Cy Twombly is the third contemporary artist after Anselm Kiefer and Francois Morellet to be commissioned for an installation at the Louvre This ceiling a monumental work covering over 400 m2 is the astonishing result of a novel approach taken by the artist Known for the energetic scrawls on his writing paintings or for his vivid splashes of color Cy Twombly chose to adapt himself to rather than impose himself on the space remaining faithful to the zen qualities of detachment lightness and permanence that permeate his work BACK COVER Cy Twombly Heiner Bastian,1992 Cy Twombly Heiner Bastian,1992 Cy Twombly Heiner Bastian,1976
