Paris Was Ours Penelope Rowlands, 2025-04-08 Thirty two essays many never before published of life in Paris from writers who were drawn by the city's charms to take up residence there In thirty two personal essays more than half of which are published here for the first time authors describe how they were seduced by Paris and then began to see things differently They came to write to cook to find love to study to raise children to escape or to live the way it's done in French movies they came from the United States Canada and England from Iran Iraq and Cuba and a few from other parts of France And they stayed not as tourists but as Parisians some are still living there In Paris Was Ours these outsiders turned insiders share their observations and revelations about the City of Light The collection includes entries from celebrated literary expats such as Diane Johnson David Sedaris Judith Thurman Joe Queenan and Edmund White Together their reflections form an unusually perceptive and multifaceted portrait of a city that is entrancing at times exasperating but always fascinating They remind us that Paris belongs to everyone it has touched and to each in a different way A wonderful collection The essays capture the mood of the city in all of its dark and light shades evoking the spirit of Eugene Atget and Marcel Proust Chicago Tribune

On the Bullet Train with Emily Brontë Judith Pascoe, 2019-01-23 While teaching in Japan Judith Pascoe was fascinated to discover the popularity that Emily Brontë's novel Wuthering Heights has enjoyed there Nearly 100 years after its first formal introduction to the country the novel continues to engage the imaginations of Japanese novelists filmmakers manga artists and others resulting in numerous translations adaptations and dramatizations On the Bullet Train with Emily Brontë is Pascoe's lively account of her quest to discover the reasons for the continuous Japanese embrace of Wuthering Heights including quite varied and surprising adaptations of the novel At the same time the book chronicles Pascoe's experience as an adult student of Japanese She contemplates the multiple Japanese translations of Brontë as contrasted to the single or non-existent English translations of major Japanese writers Carrying out a close reading of a distant country's Wuthering Heights Pascoe begins to see American literary culture as a small island on which readers are isolated from foreign literature In this and in her previous book The Sarah Siddons Audio Files Pascoe's engaging narrative innovates a new scholarly form involving immersive research practice to attempt a cross-cultural version of reader response criticism On the Bullet Train with Emily Brontë will appeal to scholars in the fields of 19th-century British literature adaptation studies and Japanese literary history

Apples and Oranges Marie Brenner, 2025-10-16 To be sure some brothers and sisters have relationships that are easy But oh some relationships can be fraught Confusing too How can two people share the same parents and turn out to be entirely different Marie Brenner's brother Carl yin to her yang red state to her blue state lived in Texas and in the apple country of Washington state cultivating his orchards polishing his guns and no doubt causing their grandfather Isidor to turn in his grave attending church while Marie a world-class journalist and bestselling author led a sophisticated life among the New York libs her brother loathed From their earliest days there was a gulf between them well documented in testy letters and telling photos I am a textbook younger child training as le noir to my brother Brenner writes He's barely six years old and has already developed the Carl Look It's the expression that the rabbit gets in Watership Down when it goes tharn freezes in the light After many years apart a medical crisis pushed them back into each other's lives Marie temporarily abandoned her job at Vanity Fair magazine her friends and her husband to try to help her brother Except that Carl fought her every step of the way I told you to stay away from the apple country he barked when she showed up And Don't tell anyone out here you're from New York City They'll get the wrong idea As usual Marie a reporter who has exposed big Tobacco scandals and Enron irritated her brother and ignored his orders She trained her formidable investigative skills on finding treatments to help her brother medically And she dug into the past of the brilliant and contentious Brenner family seeking in that complicated story a cure too for what ailed her relationship with Carl If only they could find common ground she reasoned all would be well Brothers and sisters Apples and Oranges Marie Brenner has written an extraordinary memoir one that is heartbreakingly honest funny and true It's a book that even her brother could love

Fashion Film Nick Rees-Roberts, 2018-12-13 The moving image has become a key marketing tool for luxury fashion central in enabling brands to shape their visual codes and extend their brand awareness Fashion Film is the first detailed study of the shifting shape of fashion imagery in the digital age investigating the role of the moving image in the promotion communication and spectacle of contemporary fashion Combining interdisciplinary analysis of cinema and digital culture this ground breaking book traces the emergence of fashion film in the 21st century through its historical roots in pre digital forms of photography experimental cinema mass media advertising and documentary film making right up to today's visual spread of contemporary fashion on video blogs online magazines and live streamed catwalk shows Examining collaborations between fashion designers and pioneering image makers such as Guy Bourdin Jean Paul Goode William Klein and Nick Knight the book highlights the critical tension between the fashion film conceived as a creative endeavour and as commercial enterprise Fashion Film also includes a parallel focus on factual representations of fashion through the recent rise of documentary fashion film that goes behind the scenes to follow the processes and personalities involved in making fashion Accessible and well illustrated Fashion Film will appeal to students and scholars of fashion film media photography celebrity sociology and cultural studies
