Constructing And Imagining Labour Migration:

Constructing and Imagining Labour Migration Ms Sandra Mantu, Professor Elspeth Guild, 2013-03-28 Labour migration has been on the agenda of many countries around the globe at the same time as governments of both sending and receiving countries have been trying to develop regulatory mechanisms This book opens the debate on the global politics of labour migration by proposing a re assessment of the interaction between states regarding labour migration Presenting case specific scholarship from leading experts from five different continents each contribution engages with the changing landscape of migration control and teases out emerging control patterns dynamics and correlations that can be made between them and existing control paradigms The multidisciplinary and global focus in Constructing and Imagining Labour Migration sheds much needed light on the mechanisms deployed by states in their attempts to control labour migration and on the manner in which these mechanisms impact upon migrants themselves leaving some caught up in the politics of labour market control

Constructing and Imagining Labour Migration Sandra Mantu, 2016-05-23 Labour migration has been on the agenda of many countries around the globe at the same time as governments of both sending and receiving countries have been trying to develop regulatory mechanisms This book opens the debate on the global politics of labour migration by proposing a re assessment of the interaction between states regarding labour migration Presenting case specific scholarship from leading experts from five different continents each contribution engages with the changing landscape of migration control and teases out emerging control patterns dynamics and correlations that can be made between them and existing control paradigms The multidisciplinary and global focus in Constructing and Imagining Labour Migration sheds much needed light on the mechanisms deployed by states in their attempts to control labour migration and on the manner in which these mechanisms impact upon migrants themselves leaving some caught up in the politics of labour market control

Constructing and Imagining Labour Migration Elspeth Guild, Sandra Mantu, 2011 Labour Migration in the European Union Gönül Oğuz, 2020-03-12 No analysis of migration in Europe today can avoid consideration of the role of the EU institutions as well as the member states in policy making This is because the obstacles for labour mobility which have confronted the EU in the post enlargement period have been multi dimensional in nature have encompassed many different aspects of European integration process and have operated at many different levels Recent developments in the free movement of labour in Europe entail a comprehensive analysis of the dynamic of migration policy process contextualising institutional change cooperation control and competition between the EU institutions and the member states This book provides a picture of how governance of labour migration is constructed managed negotiated and decided at the European level It brings together in an informed and well organized way some of the key issues in the face of current migration crises and Brexit

The Palgrave Handbook of International Labour Migration M. Panizzon, G. Zurcher, E. Fornalé, 2016-01-18 This Handbook focuses on the complexity surrounding the interaction between trade labour mobility and development taking into consideration social economic and human rights implications and identifies mechanisms for lawful movements across borders and their practical implementation Research Handbook on International Law and Migration Vincent Chetail, Céline Bauloz, 2014-03-28 Migration is a complex and multifaceted issue and the current legal framework suffers from considerable ambiguity and lack of cohesive focus This Handbook offers a comprehensive take on the intersection of law and migration studies and provides strat Gendered Migrations and Global Social Reproduction E. Kofman, P. Raghuram, 2015-03-24 Eleonore Kofman and Parvati Raghuram argue for the benefits of social reproduction as a lens through which to understand gendered transformations in global migration They highlight the range of sites sectors and skills in which migrants are employed and how migration is both a cause and an outcome of depletion in social reproduction

Research Handbook on the Law and Politics of Migration Catherine Dauvergne, 2021-04-30 As the law and politics of migration become increasingly intertwined this thought provoking Research Handbook addresses the challenge of analysing their growing relationship Discussing the evolving theoretical approaches to migration it explores the growing attention given to the legal frameworks for migration and the expansion of regulation as migration moves to the centre of the political global agenda The Research Handbook demonstrates that the overlap between law and politics puts the rule of law at risk in matters of migration What Happened to Equality? Bjarney Friðriksdóttir, 2017-07-03 In What Happened to Equality The Construction of the Right to Equal Treatment of Third Country Nationals in European Union Law on Labour Migration Fri riksd ttir examines five European Union Directives on labour migration that were adopted based on a sectoral approach to labour migration management An account of the negotiations between the Commission the Council and the Parliament on the five Directives reveals how access to territory and the labour market the right to equal treatment and the right to family reunification were constructed for the different groups of labour migrants and how differentiation between groups of migrants and discrimination against migrants compared with nationals which contravenes international and European human rights frameworks and international labour law is institutionalized The Political Economy of Border Drawing Regine Paul, 2015-01-01 The conditions for non EU migrant workers to gain legal entry to Britain France and Germany are at the same time similar and quite different To explain this variation this book compares the fine grained legal categories for migrant workers in each country and examines the interaction of economic social and cultural rationales in determining migrant legality Rather than investigating the failure of borders to keep unauthorized migrants out the author highlights the different policies of each country as border drawing actions Policymakers draw lines between different migrant groups and between migrants and citizens through considerations of both their economic utility and skills but also their places of origin and prospects for social integration Overall migrant worker legality is arranged against the backdrop of the specific vision each country has of itself in an economically competitive globalized world with rapidly changing welfare and citizenship models
