OECD Territorial Reviews Competitive Cities in the Global Economy OECD, 2006-11-17 A synthesis report drawing from OECD metropolitan reviews this book shows large cities performance within their countries and addresses key dilemmas including competitiveness and social cohesion intergovernmental relationships and urban finance

Developing Living Cities Kallidaikurichi Seetharam, Belinda K. P. Yuen, 2010 With more and more of the world's population projected to live in urban areas the life and death of cities has become a key factor in urban development considerations This book attempts to bring an original contribution on the analysis of creating living cities It advances the concept and framework of a living city and also explicates the key attributes of a living city that are increasingly critical to the reinvigoration and sustainable growth of cities The book also seeks to document and compare Singapore's development as a living city with other cities around the world Contributed by researchers and practitioners across different disciplines the book provides first hand insights on the development choices that cities can make and expertly draws on case studies to illuminate how innovative cities have a comparative advantage Written in a simple and accessible manner this book will appeal to people interested in urban planning policy and sustainability Sustainable Urbanization in India Jenia Mukherjee,2017-10-06 This comprehensive volume contributes to the existing and emerging body of literature on contemporary urbanization and the interactions between cities and the environment The volume is contextualized against latest theories debates and discussions on sustainable urbanization the post 2015 development agenda of the United Nations and India s official launching of the smart city agenda Reflecting on three major components of urban sustainability investments and infrastructures waste management and urban ecologies and environmentalisms it moves beyond the bi centric approach of only looking into the differences between the developed and the developing world and reflects on cities across India using polycentric methods and approaches The Indian urban scenario is extremely complex and diverse and solutions laid out in official and non official documents tend to miss these complexities This volume includes innovative research across different parts of India identifying city specific sources of unsustainability and challenges along with strategies and potentials that would make the process of urban transition both sustainable and equitable Complex explorations of non linear bottom up multisectoral process based local urban contexts across north south east and west Indian cities in this volume critique a general acceptance of the universalized concept of sustainable urbanization and suggest ways that might be important for transcending inclusive theories to form practical policy based recommendations and actions Tool Kit Guide for Rapid Economic Assessment, Planning, and Development of Cities in Asia Brian H. Roberts,2015-07-01 This tool kit provides a framework and tools for conducting rapid assessments to prepare city economic development plans in Asian cities An analytical framework guides the reader through a series of steps for three analytical and assessment processes These are designed to prepare economic profiles evaluate future economic development options and pathways and prepare strategies action plans and prioritize investment activities in support of city economic development The steps in each process are linked to tools that assist the user in collecting and analyzing data and information for a range of studies and they are also linked to assessment techniques used to prepare city economic development plans Making Competitive Cities Sako Musterd,Alan Murie,2011-02-02 The book investigates the impact on the competitiveness of cities developing creative industries arts media entertainment creative business services architects publishers designers and knowledge intensive industries ICT R include capital and non capital cities of different sizes represent cities with different economic structures and different cultural political and welfare state traditions Through this wide set of examples Making Competitive Cities informs the debate about creative and knowledge intensive industries economic development and competitiveness policies It focuses on which metropolitan regions have a better chance to develop as creative knowledge regions and which do not as well as investigating why this is so and what can policy do to influence change Chapter authors from thirteen European institutions rigorously evaluate reformulate and empirically test assumptions about cities and their potential for attracting creative and knowledge intensive industries As well as a systematic empirical comparison of developments related to these industries the book examines the pathways that cities have followed and surveys both the negative and positive impacts of different prevailing conditions Special Features Analyses link between knowledge intensive sectors and urban competitiveness Offers evidence from 13 European urban regions drawn from a major research project Establishes a new benchmark for academic and policy debates in a fast moving field Smart Economy in Smart Cities T. M. Vinod Kumar,2016-08-25 The present book highlights studies that show how smart cities promote urban economic development The book surveys the state of the art of Smart City Economic Development through a literature survey The book uses 13 in depth city research case studies in 10 countries such as the North America Europe Africa and Asia to explain how a smart economy changes the urban spatial system and vice versa This book focuses on exploratory city studies in different countries which investigate how urban spatial systems adapt to the specific needs of smart urban economy The theory of smart city economic development is not yet entirely understood and applied in metropolitan regional plans Smart urban economies are largely the result of the influence of ICT applications on all aspects of urban economy which in turn changes the land use system It points out that the dynamics of smart city GDP creation takes different paths which need further empirical study hypothesis testing and mathematical modelling Although there are hypotheses on how smart cities generate wealth and social benefits for nations there are no significant empirical studies available on how they generate urban economic development through urban spatial adaptation This book with 13 cities research studies is one attempt to fill in the gap in knowledge base The Routledge Handbook on Cities of the Global South Susan Parnell,Sophie Oldfield,2014-03-26 The renaissance in urban theory draws directly from a fresh focus on the neglected realities of cities beyond the west and embraces the global south as the epicentre of urbanism This Handbook engages the complex ways in which cities of the global south and the global north are rapidly shifting the imperative for multiple genealogies of knowledge production as well as a diversity of empirical entry points to understand contemporary urban dynamics The Handbook works towards a geographical realignment in urban studies bringing into conversation a wide array of cities across the global south the ordinary mega global and peripheral With interdisciplinary contributions from a range of leading international experts it profiles an emergent and geographically diverse body of work The contributions draw on conflicting and divergent debates to open up discussion on the meaning of the city in or of the global south arguments that are fluid and increasingly contested geographically and conceptually It reflects on critical urbanism the macro and micro scale forces that shape cities including ideological demographic and technological shifts and constantly changing global and regional economic dynamics Working with southern reference points the chapters present themes in urban politics identity and environment in ways that re frame our thinking about cities The

Handbook engages the twenty first century city through a southern urban lens to stimulate scholarly professional and activist engagements with the city
