The Faith of a Quaker (Classic Reprint) John William Graham, 2017-02-06 Excerpt from The Faith of a Quaker There arise also the insistent questions which beset all mystics and which in Quakerism demanded a corporate instead of an individual answer Was the light infallible Was the claim to it an assumption of spiritual exaltation About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Art and Entertainment Andy Hamilton, 2024-02-29 Philosophers have discussed art or artistic practices such as poetry since ancient times But systems of art and entertainment appeared only in the modern era in the West during the 18th and 19th centuries And philosophers have largely neglected the concept of entertainment In this book Andy Hamilton explores art and entertainment from a philosophical standpoint He argues against modernist theory that art and entertainment are not opposites but form a loosely connected conceptual system Against postmodernism however he insists on their vital differences Hamilton begins by questioning the received modernist view examining artist entertainers including Jane Austen Charles Dickens Louis Armstrong and Billie Holiday Entertainment he argues is by nature audience centred but so is art in a different way Thus while art should pass the test of time entertainment must pass the test of its own time it has to entertain at the time it is produced Art and entertainment are inter dependent concepts and must be understood together with other aesthetic concepts including criticism genius canons and design These concepts form the subject of later chapters of this book where Hamilton develops a meritocratic position that is neither elitist nor populist He also addresses the contemporary charge of cultural appropriation and qualifies it An innovative feature of the book is the inclusion of dialogues with artists critics and academics that help to recast or reformulate the debate Art and Entertainment A Philosophical Exploration is essential reading for those working in art and aesthetics and will also be of interest to those in related disciplines such as cultural studies music and film studies with an interest in entertainment Destroy the Copy - Plaster Cast Collections in the 19th-20th Centuries Annetta Alexandridis, Lorenz Winkler-Horaček, 2022-09-06 Based on two international conferences held at Cornell University and the Freie Universität of Berlin in 2010 and 2015 this volume is the first ever to explicitly address the destruction of plaster cast collections of ancient Mediterranean and Western sculpture Focusing on Europe the Americas and Japan art historians archaeologists and a literary scholar discuss how different museum and academic traditions national as well as disciplinary notions of value and authenticity or colonialism impacted the fate of collections The texts offer detailed documentation of degrees of destruction by spectacular acts of defacement demolition discarding or neglect They also shed light on the accompanying discourses regarding aesthetic ideals political ideologies educational and scholarly practices or race With destruction being understood as a critical part of reception the histories of cast collections defy the traditional homogenous narrative of rise and decline Their diverse histories provide critical evidence for rethinking the use and display of plaster cast collections in the contemporary moment Margaret Pearmain Welch (1893-1984)
