Digenis Akritis Digenis Akritis:

Digenis Akritis Elizabeth Jeffreys, 1998-05-07 Digenis Akritis is Byzantium's only epic poem telling of the exploits of a heroic warrior of double descent on the frontiers between Byzantine and Arab territory in Asia Minor in the ninth and tenth centuries. It survives in six versions of which the two oldest dating from the thirteenth and fifteenth centuries are presented here in an edited version. The manuscripts are preserved in the Grottaferrata monastery near Rome and the Escorial Library in Spain. Behind these two versions lies a twelfth century poem that can now be glimpsed at but not reconstructed. This edition and translation aims at highlighting the nature of the lost poem and at providing a guide through the maze of recent discussions about the epic and its background. Global Byzantium Leslie Brubaker, Rebecca Darley, Daniel

Reynolds, 2022-07-29 Global Byzantium is in part a recasting and expansion of the old Byzantium and its neighbours theme with however a methodological twist away from the resolutely political and toward the cultural and economic. A second thing that Global Byzantium as a concept explicitly endorses is comparative methodology. Global Byzantium needs also to address three further issues: cultural capital, the importance of the local, and the empire's strategic geographical location. Cultural capital in past decades it was fashionable to define Byzantium as culturally superior to western Christian Europe and Byzantine influence was a key concept especially in art historical circles. This concept has been increasingly criticised and what we now see emerging is a comparative methodology that relies on the concept of competitive sharing, not blind copying but rather competitive appropriation. The importance of the local is equally critical. We need to talk more about what the Byzantines saw when they looked out and what others saw in Byzantium when they looked in and to think about how that impacted on our very post modern concepts of globalism. Finally, we need to think about the empire's strategic geographical position between the fourth and the thirteenth centuries: if anyone was travelling internationally they had to travel across or along the coasts of the Byzantine Empire. Byzantium was thus a crucial intermediary for good or for ill between Europe, Africa and Asia, effectively the glue that held the Christian world together and it was also a critical transit point between the various Islamic polities and the Christian world. Reading the Late Byzantine Romance Adam J. Goldwyn, Ingela Nilsson, 2018-12-20

The corpus of Palaiologan romances consists of about a dozen works of imaginative fiction from the thirteenth to the fifteenth centuries which narrate the trials and tribulations of aristocratic young lovers. This volume brings together leading scholars of Byzantine literature to examine the corpus afresh and aims to be the definitive work on the subject suitable for scholars and students of all levels. It offers interdisciplinary and transnational approaches which demonstrate the aesthetic and cultural value of these works in their own right and their centrality to the medieval and early modern Greek, European and Mediterranean literary traditions. From a historical perspective, the volume also emphasizes how the romances represent a turning point in the history of Greek letters: they are a repository of both ancient and medieval oral poetic and novelistic traditions and yet are often considered the earliest works of Modern Greek literature. The Armenians in the Medieval

Islamic World Seta B. Dadoyan, 2017-09-08 In this first of a massive three volume work Seta B Dadoyan studies the Armenian experience in the medieval Islamic world and takes the reader through hitherto undiscovered paradigmatic cases of interaction with other populations in the region Being an Armenian Dadoyan argues means having an ethnic ancestry laden with narratives drawn from the vast historic Armenian habitat Contradictory trends went into the making of Armenian history yet most narratives fail to reflect this rich texture Linking Armenian Islamic history is one way of dealing with the problem Dadoyan's concern is also to outline revolutionary elements in the making of Armenian ideologies and politics This extensive work captures the multidimensional nature of the Armenian experience in the medieval Islamic world The author holds that every piece of literature including historical writing is an artifact It is a composition of many elements arranged in certain forms order sequence proportion detail intensity etc The author has composed and arranged the larger subjects and their sub themes in such a way as to create an open dynamic continuity to Armenian history that is intellectually intriguing aesthetically appealing and close to lived experiences

Struggle for Freedom Basilius J. Groen, 2024-12-15 The study presents ways of structuring civil codes on the basis of selected codifications from Central and Eastern Europe since the end of 18th century until the modern times In five chapters the author depicts the arrangement of an possible general part of the law of obligations of ius in re of family law and the law of persons as well as of inheritance law The focus of the study is searching the most common systematic patterns and the main differences between the socialist and bourgeois codifications

Basileia Geoffrey Nathan, Lynda Garland, 2011-01-01 Basileia brings together 18 essays on the topic of Imperium and Culture in the Byzantine Empire from the fourth to the fifteenth centuries The volume is dedicated to Elizabeth and Michael Jeffreys who number among the founding members of the Australian Association for Byzantine Studies and whose contribution to the field is internationally recognised Each of the honorands has contributed a chapter other contributors include Roger Scott Pauline Allen Brian Croke Ann Mullett Geoffrey Nathan Lynda Garland Bronwen Neil Andrew Gillett Amelia Brown Andrew Stone Nigel Westbrook and Erika Gielen This collection will have a broad appeal to those interested in the complex relationship between imperial rule and culture in Byzantium The volume includes 50 colour and black and white images

The Routledge Handbook of Human-Animal Relations in the Byzantine World Przemysław

Marciniak, Tristan Schmidt, 2024-12-03 Animals have recently become recognized as significant agents of history as part of the animal turn in historical studies Animals in Byzantium were human companions a source of entertainment and food it is small wonder that they made their way into literature and the visual arts Moreover humans defined themselves and their activities by referring to non human animals either by anthropomorphizing animals as in the case of the Cat Mice War or by animalizing humans and their unwanted behaviours The Routledge Handbook of Human Animal Relations in the Byzantine World offers an in depth survey of the relationships between humans and non human animals in the Byzantine Empire The contributions included in the volume address both material zooarchaeology animals as food visual representations of animals and immaterial semiotics philosophy aspects of human animal coexistence in chapters written by leading experts in their field This book will appeal to students and scholars alike researching Byzantine social and cultural history as well as those interested in the history of animals This book marks an important step in the development of animal studies in Byzantium filling a gap in the wider research on the history of human animal relations in the Middle Ages Purity Lost Steven A. Epstein, 2006-12-31 Purity Lost investigates the porous nature of social political and religious boundaries prevalent in the eastern Mediterranean from the Black Sea to Egypt during the Middle Ages In this intriguing study Steven A Epstein finds that people consistently defied overlooked or transcended restrictions designed to preserve racial and cultural purity in order to establish relationships with those different from themselves These mixed relationships among people who did not share language creed or skin color undermined the pervasive claims of purity They forced people to reflect on their own identities and the bonds whether social political religious or racial that defined their lives Drawing on examples from daily life and interstate politics Epstein takes a close look at the renegades and rule breakers of this era He explores race master slave relationships diplomatic relations between Christian Italians and Muslim Turks religious conversions from Christian to Muslim and vice versa and religious boundaries of the human and the angelic Epstein reveals the modern view of cultural ethnic and religious purity in the early modern Mediterranean as a mirage and he offers new insights into how present day conceptions about creed color ethnicity and language originated MLN. ,1923 Fictional Storytelling in the Medieval Eastern Mediterranean and Beyond ,2016-09-27 This volume offers an overview of the rich narrative material circulating in the medieval Mediterranean As a multilingual and multicultural zone the Eastern Mediterranean offered a broad market for tales in both oral and written form and longer works of fiction which were translated and reworked in order to meet the tastes and cultural expectations of new audiences thus becoming common intellectual property of all the peoples around the Mediterranean shores Among others the volume examines for the first time popular eastern tales such as Kalila and Dimna Sindbad Barlaam and Joasaph and Arabic epics together with their Byzantine adaptations Original Byzantine love romances both learned and vernacular are discussed together with their Persian counterparts and with later adaptations of western stories This combination of such disparate narrative material aims to highlight both the wealth of medieval storytelling and the fundamental unity of the medieval Mediterranean world Contributors are Carolina Cupane Faustina Doufikar Aerts Massimo Fusillo Corinne Jouanno Grammatiki A Karla Bettina Kr nung Renata Lavagnini Ulrich Moennig Ingela Nilsson Claudia Ott Oliver Overwien Panagiotis Roilos Julia Rubanovich Ida Toth Robert Volk and Kostas Yiavis
