pluriculturalism media and technology and AIDS As a former editor of The Journal of Social Theory in Art Education and a founding member for the Caucus on Social Theory in Art Education the author attempts to deconstruct the current art education paradigm which is largely based on modernist tenets and to reorient art education practice to social issues as developed in both media education and cultural studies Part of the intent in these two volumes is to undertake a sustained critique of the 1982 Art in the Mainstream A I M statement which continues to be considered as the core value for art education The distinct intention of this critique is to put forward a new value base for art art education in these postmodern times Many of the essays raise the need to be attentive to sex gender issues in art art education and the need to read the artistic discourse otherwise There is a sustained critique of the art programs developed by the Getty Center for the Arts whose arts curriculum presents the paradigm case of late modernist thinking Some essays are written in a provocative form that tries to accommodate such content This is particularly the case in Pun k Deconstruction where architectural discourse is deconstructed and which includes an artistic performance given by the author in 1987 This singular set of volumes combines scholarship in the areas of gender studies aesthetics art history art education poststructuralism and cultural studies in a unique blend of theory and practice for rethinking the field of art education

Only the Sacred Peggy Whalen-Levitt,2011-09 The materialist philosophy that has dominated Western civilization for the past four hundred years is coming to an end In Only the Sacred Transforming Education in the Twenty first Century we are introduced to a new vision of reality where we sense a more profound world within the material world we know so well In this remarkable collection of articles originally published in Chrysalis a publication of the Center for Education Imagination and the Natural World we journey with twenty three educators through an exploration of fundamental questions of our time a path of inner schooling for educators and practices where a new understanding of a sacred universe is actualized in diverse educational settings Inspired by the mentoring of Thomas Berry this collection makes it clear that the depth and fullness of the universe from the stars in the heavens to the dirt beneath our feet cannot be known by the intellect alone Only a sense of the sacred deep within the human soul will reveal the whole Ethnography Unbound Stephen Gilbert Brown,Sidney I. Dobrin,2012-02-01 These provocative new essays redefine the goals methods and assumptions of qualitative and ethnographic research in composition studies making evident not only the crucial importance of ethnographic research but also its resilience As Ethnography Unbound makes evident critical ethnographers are retheorizing their methodologies in ways that both redefine ethnographic practices and values and at the same time have begun to liberate ethnographic practices from the often disabling stronghold of postmodern critique Showing how ethnography works through dialogic processes and moves toward political ends this collection opens the doors to rethinking ethnographic research in composition studies
