

Cultural Traditions Unit Lesson Plans

2nd Grade Social Studies

Week 1: Exploring Cultural Traditions

Day 1: Introducing Cultural Traditions

Objective: Students will be able to identify and describe different cultural traditions.

Culture: New Vocabulary

- 2.2.10 Understand and describe the ways in which people from diverse backgrounds have contributed to the common culture of California and the United States.
- 2.2.11 Understand and describe basic aspects of the economy, human geography, and historical development of California and the United States.
- 2.2.12 Understand how individuals and groups have influenced the history of local and regional communities.

Classroom Activities

1. Begin the lesson by asking the students what they know about cultural traditions. Explain that cultural traditions are the customs, beliefs, values, and practices that are passed down from generation to generation within a cultural group or people.
2. Give the students a picture and a list of different cultural traditions (e.g., Chinese New Year, Diwali, Thanksgiving, Hanukkah) and ask them to identify which one it is.

Collaborative Activity

1. Have students work in pairs to research and create a poster about a cultural tradition of their choice. They should include information about the tradition's history, meaning, and how it is celebrated.

Independent Practice/Assignment

1. Have students present their posters to the class and share what they learned about the cultural tradition.

Assessment: Look for evidence that these students make clear connections or insights into a tradition or activity related to the cultural traditions discussed.
