The SAGE Handbook of Comparative Studies in Education Larry E. Suter,Emma Smith,Brian D. Denman,2019-05-27 Educational practices have rapidly changed in the last few decades especially in how exchanges of information and learning are delivered and processed Yet while the field of international comparative studies has grown there has not been an extensive study on the relationship between educational practices students and how practitioners are prepared and trained This handbook explores international educational practices and behaviours through new research and a review of existing research with chapters spread across six parts Part I Introduction to Research Practices in Comparative Studies of Education Part II Research Methods Part III Policy Transfer Research through International Comparisons Part IV Use of Student time in Formal and Informal Settings Part V School Practices from Early Childhood through Secondary School Part VI Conclusion Lessons from Large Scale Studies

Trust, Accountability and Capacity in Education System Reform Melanie Ehren,Jacqueline Baxter,2020-12-29 This global collection brings a new perspective to the field of comparative education by presenting trust capacity and accountability as the three building blocks of education systems and education system reform In exploring how these three factors relate to student learning outcomes across different international contexts this book provides a powerful framework for a more equal system Drawing upon research and case studies from scholars policymakers and experts from international agencies across five continents this book shows how trust capacity and accountability interact in ways and with consequences that vary among countries pointing readers towards understanding potential leverage points for system change Trust Accountability and Capacity in Education System Reform illuminates how these three concepts are embedded in an institutional context temporally socially and institutionally and offers an analysis that will be of use to researchers policymakers and agencies working in comparative education and towards education system reform Chapter 11 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution 2.0 Generic license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9780429344855>
