The Maritime Laws of the Arabian Gulf Cooperation Council States Richard Price, Andreas Haberbeck, 2023-12-04 The past ten years have seen rapid growth in the economic and maritime importance of the Arabian GCC states and an equally rapid modernisation of their domestic laws Nevertheless much of the maritime law and procedure in the region remains unknown or misunderstood both outside and even inside the region Since the region is likely to remain significant in terms of maritime commerce a better understanding of the law and regulations is required The Maritime Laws of Arabian Gulf Cooperation States is intended as a guide not only for lawyers concerned with maritime law in the Gulf region but also for all sectors of the shipping community with an involvement in the region After a brief description of the historical maritime and legal background Volume I discusses in detail the operation and application of GCC maritime law The major areas are analysed and placed in the context of the accepted regime of international maritime law The author finally draws some important general conclusions and looks to the future of maritime law in the Gulf including the movement for the unification of the laws of the GCC Volume II of the work contains translations of the major GCC maritime legislation as well as tables of International Conventions that have been ratified by the GCC States Siviele Ingenieur in

Suid-Afrika ,1984 Crimes against Humanity M. Cherif Bassiouni,2011-04-25 This book traces the evolution of crimes against humanity CAH and their application from the end of World War I to the present day in terms of both historic legal analysis and subject matter content The first part of the book addresses general issues pertaining to the categorization of CAH in normative jurisprudential and doctrinal terms This is followed by an analysis of the specific contents of CAH describing its historic phases going through international criminal tribunals mixed model tribunals and the International Criminal Court The book examines the general parts and defenses of the crime along with the history and jurisprudence of both international and national prosecutions For the first time a list of all countries that have enacted national legislation specifically directed at CAH is collected along with all of the national prosecutions that have occurred under national legislation up to 2010
