Conceptualizing Iranian Anthropology Conceptualizing Iranian Anthropology:

Conceptualizing Iranian Anthropology Shahnaz R. Nadjmabadi, 2009 During recent years attempts have been made to move beyond the Eurocentric perspective that characterized the social sciences especially anthropology for over 150 years A debate on the anthropology of anthropology was needed one that would consider other forms of knowledge modalities of writing and political and intellectual practices This volume undertakes that challenge it is the result of discussions held at the first organized encounter between Iranian American and European anthropologists since the Iranian Revolution of 1979 It is considered an important first step in overcoming the dichotomy between peripheral anthropologies versus central anthropologies The contributors examine from a critical perspective the historical cultural and political field in which anthropological research emerged in Iran at the beginning of the twentieth century and in which it continues to develop today

Minorities in Iran R. Elling, 2013-02-18 Based on the premise that nationalism is a dominant factor in Iranian identity politics despite the significant changes brought about by the Islamic Revolution this cross disciplinary work investigates the languages of nationalism in contemporary Iran through the prism of the minority issue Nomadism in Iran

Daniel T. Potts, 2014 Potts examines the development of nomadism in Iran over the course of three millennia Evidence of nomadism in prehistory is examined and found insufficient to justify claims of its great antiquity The background of the earliest nomadic groups identified as Persian tribes by Herodotus is examined within the context of the migration of Iranian speakers onto the Iranian plateau in the late second or early first millennium B C Thereafter evidence of nomadic groups in Late Antiquity and early Islamic times is reviewed Persian Literature and Modernity Hamid Rezaei Yazdi, Arshavez Mozafari, 2018-12-07 Persian Literature and Modernity recasts the history of modern literature in Iran by elucidating the bonds between the classical tradition and modernity and exploring textual generic and discursive formations through heterodoxical investigations This is first done through the rehabilitation of concepts embedded in tradition including the munzirah debate Ahrman the demonic tajarrud radical aloneness and nризyat discontent Following this are broader structural and processual treatments including the emergence of the genre of the social novel the international dimension of Persian and Persianate canon formation and the development of salvage ethnography and anthropological discourse in Iran Covering literary experiments from the twelfth to the twentieth centuries the chapters in this volume make a case for stepping outside the bounds of orthodox literary scholarship in Iranian studies with its associated political and orientalist determinants in order to provide a more nuanced conception of literary modernity in Iran Offering an alternative reading of modernity in Persian literature this book is an invaluable resource for scholars and students interested in the history of modern Iran and Persian Literature Methodologies of Mobility Alice Elliot, Roger Norum, Noel B. Salazar, 2017-05-01 Research into mobility is an exciting challenge for the social sciences that raises novel social cultural spatial and ethical questions At the heart of these empirical and theoretical complexities lies the question of methodology how can we best capture and understand a planet in flux Methodologies of Mobility speaks beyond disciplinary boundaries to the methodological challenges and possibilities of engaging with a world on the move With scholars continuing to face different forms and scales of mobility this volume strategically traces innovative ways of designing applying and reflecting on both established and cutting edge methodologies of mobility The Routledge Handbook of Field Research Daniel Hammett,Naomi Holmes,2025-07-28 The Routledge Handbook of Field Research presents a comprehensive go to resource for staff and students in preparing for and thinking about the doing of field research including both individual fieldwork and group field classes Framed by rapidly evolving debates relating to environmental and social justice decolonialism the climate crisis and post truth society as well as taking into account ethical health and safety and other practical considerations researchers are faced with a complex and evolving set of factors when making decisions Working from foundational questions relating to the need for and importance of field research of where the field is through logistical and practical concerns to complex debates around equality and diversity power relations sustainability and ethical conundrums this book is not a simple formulaic how to guide Instead the handbook offers a more critical and reflective approach acting more as a how to start to think critically about text In providing a comprehensive and cutting edge overview of key debates and considerations in the planning doing and wrapping up of field research the handbook shares examples and reflections from experienced field researchers and field class leaders as well as scenarios debates and critical questions to help guide field researchers through their research journey While there is a rapidly expanding array of books on research methods and epistemologies this handbook offers a unique contribution that addresses distinct gaps in the current literature Through a strong emphasis on field class and group based field research this handbook offers a unique resource to support field class leaders in thinking through the design and doing of field classes and adopts a pedagogical approach in asking difficult questions of the reader rather than offering the answer In so doing we promote a deeper reflective engagement with the complexities of the research journey The Routledge Handbook of Field Research includes contributions from over 50 leading authors culminating in an essential resource for both experienced field researchers and field class leaders as well as newcomers to lone and group based field research

Nomads in Postrevolutionary Iran Lois Beck,2014-09-19 Examining the rapid transition in Iran from a modernizing westernizing secularizing monarchy 1941 79 to a hard line conservative clergy run Islamic republic 1979 this book focuses on the ways this process has impacted the Qashqa i a rural nomadic tribally organized Turkish speaking ethnic minority of a million and a half people who are dispersed across the southern Zagros Mountains Analysing the relationship between the tribal polity and each of the two regimes the book goes on to explain the resilience of the people s tribal organizations kinship networks and politicized ethnolinguistic identities to demonstrate how these structures and ideologies offered the Qashqa i a way to confront the pressures emanating from the two central governments Existing scholarly works on politics in Iran rarely consider Iranian society outside the capital of Tehran and beyond the reach of the details of national politics Local level studies on Iran accounts of the ways people actually lived are now rare especially after the revolution Based on long term anthropological research Nomads in Postrevolutionary Iran provides a unique insight into how national level issues relate to the local level and will be of interest to scholars and researchers in Anthropology Iranian Studies and Middle Eastern Studies Lineages and Advancements in Material Culture Studies Timothy Carroll, Antonia Walford, Shireen
